Thread: Walt Disney's Staff Feedback

Walt Disney™ - May 7, 2016, 3:24 pm

From what some of you may see, I'm no longer a Staff member. My activity on Hack Forums has been slowly dying down, and I need to focus on more important things in life.

Being Staff member was a very rewarding experience. Learning from members, helping, and meeting new people was a blast. I'll be active within the community, but need to slow things down.

Going to keep this short for now. Don't have too much to say. Thank you for the opportunity Omni, it was a great time and I've learned a ton.

Mango? - May 7, 2016, 3:25 pm

I hope the more important things in your life goes well.

B?o?s?t?o?n - May 7, 2016, 3:25 pm

Yes finally you can't give me warnings :p

J?son - May 7, 2016, 3:25 pm

Goodbye Walt.

I won't miss you.

Lewd - May 7, 2016, 3:25 pm

Awh I love you Walt c': going to miss the staff bar by your name?? I know I would minimalist - May 7, 2016, 3:26 pm

Cya Walt, I don't have to be afraid when insulting you anymore.

reBELLYus - May 7, 2016, 3:26 pm

You were one of my favorite staff members on the site. Sad to see you go.

typhoid - May 7, 2016, 3:26 pm

you were fair to me as a staff

Good luck with life

Stashyy - May 7, 2016, 3:27 pm

My favorite staff is no longer staff.

You're just a regular fgt to me now. <3

A NEW ERA... - May 7, 2016, 3:27 pm

Gave me a warning once, Guess it means you definitely did your job good. Thanks for your term.

KFC Watermelon - May 7, 2016, 3:31 pm

Thanks a lot for your hard work and dedication. I love HackForums but will admit there is a fair share of low quality members, drama and spam posts. Moderators are hard workers and deserve respect.

Judicious? - May 7, 2016, 3:32 pm

Damn man. You had a good run. Welcome back to the other side.

Krave - May 7, 2016, 3:34 pm

Shame to see you stepping down, I liked you a lot.

P.S. You should come on Discord more often!

Flared - May 7, 2016, 3:36 pm

Damn you were the coolest staff lol sad to see you outta there. You cant warn me anymore);

Night Fury - May 7, 2016, 3:36 pm

Hey Walt, I only had one interaction with you, but it was fine. Thank you for moving my news thread :)

Good job on staff, and best of luck with your future.

SIM-2223238 - May 7, 2016, 3:37 pm

oh god finally, you were the only one giving me those shitty warnings,

Roger Waters - May 7, 2016, 4:32 pm

I'll admit, I was a little weary about you becoming staff because you were different than anyone who's recently been Staff or even Mentor based on your site activity. Boy did you prove me wrong, you actually exceeded the expectations I had for you, and that's probably true for most people who were surprised when you became staff. You were a great staff member given the circumstances and I wish you the best in your future endeavors.

Thanks for everything what you did on HF. You where always on my side when i pm'd you about my situations.

rouxster115 - May 7, 2016, 4:37 pm

I heard you gave people shitty warnings and I'm always on the edge of the rules over in this house so it's good that your not staff now, but on a positive note thank you for contributing life changing posts to us.

You sucked as staff anyway tbh

Sounds like there's a spot open for Froggy though, who would make a great member of staff

Walt. You were one of the best staff members i've ever met throughout my history on HF. You didn't let the amount of power you had get to you and you respected every single member upgraded or not. Your a very kind person and did a great job. You gave out warnings to users appropriately if they broke a rule. I'm saddened by the fact that you had to leave and simply wish that you would stay. But thats up to you to decide. I sincerely hope that you decide to continue to be active on HF and continue to post interesting threads. Even if you do decide to leave I will always personally remember you. And you will always have a special page dedicated you.

There are more important things in life than HF?
WTF?

Jokes aside, thanks for your service.

I will surely miss you bro.

You were the only staff member who would message me about something or message others about a thread before being a .. and just removing it. You actually took the time to message people and talk to figure what a method involved etc..

and for that, I respect you more than anyone else on staff team (expect Omni, and not because i'm a ass-kisser, hes just been a great guy/friend to me as well.)
