Thread: Take an 6 month vaction ban or don't take one? || I took the ban!

dopepizza - May 10, 2016, 11:19 am

I took the vacation ban. See you guys later, take care! ?

I have been busy lately.

Education, homework, skateboarding, programming and browsing forums like Hackforums and Reddit is getting too much for me.

I think I need to focus on my education, but I cannot stop browsing forums.

So you guys will decide, should I take an 6 month vacation ban or not?

If more guys vote yes I will do it.

I am a man of my word. ?

Take a shorter one in the case that you want to come back earlier.

I will not be doing that!

No dude, Thats silly, Its never good to just quit something right away, its always better to slowly ease of. Take short breaks man and slowly move away.

Why should we decide your future? You want to get good grades then take the vacation brother.

I have good grades, but I think I need to spend more time outside of my computer. Not sure though. So I will let you guys decide.
