Their site seems to be under maintenance currently however I found a download link online earlier today. I scanned the executable on VT and found it to be 7/56. If you want I can provide you with both the download link and the scan results so that you can decide for yourself.

The website obviously.

It's currently being parked.

CyberError - May 17, 2016, 7:49 am may i get the key in pm please thanks

kpown - May 17, 2016, 1:09 pm

Attention all who PMed me saying their codes did not work. This may be because they just redid their entire site and im assuming they redid their program as well. If you get the older version of sentry the keys may still work.

Goodluck guys
