No, it doesn't revolve around any of that shit involving links or pay per download. You don't need to make any stupid websites or anything like that.

Well the payout is BTC but I'm not sure if you would consider that crypto currency exchanging but no it does not involve buying low and selling high on a crypto currency exchange. I have PM'd you with some more information in case you need it.

The thread design disclaimer says "No refund under any circumstances," but then at the bottom of your thread it says "YOU CAN RECEIVE A FULL REFUND IF YOU PROVIDE PROOF THAT YOU HAVEN'T EARNED AFTER 14 DAYS!"

Does this involve selling? And can the steps in the eBook be applied almost directly, or does it just give an example and leave us to do certain things ourselves?

Yeah sorry about the thread design, the refund offer is still a thing. There is a degree of selling involved but no shopify stuff or anything like that. And after reading the guide you will know what to do so I guess it's direct.
