I've been watching this anime and I personally kind of like the concept of a half human/zombie type show. What are your thoughts about this show?

I have no thoughts on it since I haven't seen it but hey, thanks. Now I have something new to watch as I have never heard of this and it sounds good.

It's like Attack on Titans but with zombies and trains.

The show itself is kinda cool, but it's not getting anywhere and every episode just kind of seems to be the same without a captivating storyline - it's kinda just meh now

It's kinda 'okay' for me. The whole 'im a kabaneri' thing turned it off for me.

It's pretty nice so far imo.
