Why are you looking for haircuts online? Ur some kind of fag?

Niko - May 15, 2016, 6:30 pm

I just filed a report with cloudflare and a few child protection agencies, so their domain will most likely be seized.

I think it's a good white-hat practice to report sites like that,,but i just can't imagine myself searching for sites like that.

First it's not secure and not moral imo.

xUnLiMiT3D - May 31, 2016, 12:28 pm

Nice work so far guys. I am pretty sure this guy is german, since he has some kind of Disclaimer written in german on his website (which is needed here in germany), also one of his skype names ended with epvp (as posted before). epvp is the short version of "elitepvpers" a pretty well-known gaming/trading forum here in germany. Also his name sounds pretty german to me.

Edit: I am 100% sure he is german, he bought tickets for a bundesliga game (posted on his instagram). He also lives in cologne. (

<https://www.instagram.com/p/YkR6qqkSXL/?taken-by=saschax99>)

Edit 2: I tried doxing a bit deeper, I found his epvp-account:

<http://www.elitepvpers.com/forum/members/5159554-juggernaut-.html> - he also had a youtube account named "liskolp", but it doesn't exist anymore, but you can still see the socialblade-stats:

<http://socialblade.com/youtube/user/laskolp> - and also he had a twitter account @liskoLP which got suspended. I hope I helped. Feel free to dox deeper but I think you'll need some german skills ^^

But feel free to ask me if you need a translation

Why does it bother you about me just commenting on the situation. Its not doing any harm by me just posting shit and why'd you post if you have nothing to contribute right now either.

i have nothing to contribute because there is no point in contributing. There are thousands of these sites and a circlejerk of scrubs all shouting out "OMG SO DISGUSTING" is going to do nothing.

There was another thread about this posted by another user, can someone find it? I can't

Why would this be a "pedo site". Maybe the guy is just cutting the hair of small boys and then posts them on the internet. Oh wow, now that I listen to that myself I realize how right u are :/

Look at the site it has nothing to do with haircuts that is how i found the site.

The content on the site is Sexually Aggressive to minors and has sexually suggestive images/images that look like they are taken without permission.

So before you get mad saying it is not, and it absolutely is. Check your pants and make sure your not trying to defend your self from believing you are just like the site owner... A Sexual Predator

SandSeep - June 3, 2016, 10:06 am

I personally reported the site to the NCMEC. Borderline porn or not this is disgusting and could lead to some pedophiles being captured later down the road.

Sorry but im free to "Think" and "Say" what I want to! YOU posted these pictures in the first place! You continue doing so knowing full well that many on this site who truly love the look of boys in a non-sexually attracted way and others in the opposite, Some like myself in both ways! I for one think that, YES he IS very cute-in the way you describe! But I do see him as a sexy looking boy, He has a cute face, nice long legs and is beautiful...and I find him sexually attractive!!! That DOES NOT mean I would have sex with him!!! also doesn't mean I wouldn't. Its all fantasy on here anyway? Let the users enjoy this site their own way without your constant judgments! You feel the way you do and try to impose YOUR feelings when you post.....enough already! We get it! You be YOU .Let others be THEMSELVES. Why must you post your redundant diatribe before every post? its getting OLD!
