WirelessNova - July 7, 2010, 4:13 pm

Ok. No pictures no links etc.

Just straight text here.

I've not mastered the art of EWhoring, however I have developed a fool proof method.

Instead of using chats what I do is post in craigslist. I make an add with a non nude photo. And usually in the casual encounters section or the adult services section. Then I coach whoever emails me into sending me a payment for my time before hand and in exchange they get the pack of nudies. I usually say something like this:

"I'm interested in meeting someone this evening. Usually men buy my picture packs first its $20 via paypal. It helps me verify the serious guys who want to have some extra fun ;) :) and also its a way of me being safe. So if you want to meet tonight then we will work something out after the $20 paypal payment and I send you my pics. If you want to know if I'm real or not let me know how I can verify it to you.

-Stacey

Paypal= insertyourpaypalhere@hotmail.com"

It works great. Most guys try not to deal with that but you send a few teaser pics and say they get the full nudes after the payment. The thing about this is most people expect a chargeback or something. Just never discuss a payment for sex or anything. anytime they ask about it just keep saying we'll discuss that after the $20 paypal payment.

I'll let you know in the past 2 days I've made $260 doing this. Because they won't dispute or bother you too much because they are thinking they are getting a prostitute at their door sometime in the evening (with enough SEing skills) and so they make the payment. They won't dispute because well lets face it they arent going to tell paypal they bought a prostitute or made a payment to one lol.

I hope this helps as a second method for you to use. This is my primary and works a lot better than hit or miss chat rooms.

bornkrunk - July 7, 2010, 4:41 pm

I love it! this is great ill try it :)

WirelessNova - July 7, 2010, 6:58 pm

Thanks is greatly appreciated and let me know please let me know how it works out for you.

Ghost Face - July 7, 2010, 7:28 pm

wow im going to try thins tonight great method :)

WirelessNova - July 7, 2010, 9:23 pm

I've made another $120 today just throwing that out there. Give it a shot.

Ghost Face - July 7, 2010, 9:27 pm

i found another site thats like cregs list that im using now i just have to wait for ym post to get conformed by the admin.

imkiwiournot - July 7, 2010, 9:51 pm

is there anyway to get verified if i dont have a phone with me?

Axanas - July 7, 2010, 9:55 pm

(Jul 7, 2010 09:51 PM)imkiwiournot Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) is there anyway to get verified if i dont have a phone with me?

Yeah, I never ended up getting verified to Craigslist..

I don't want to give my phone number, as I know I'll be scamming.. =/

Any suggestions?

T3h Hack3r - July 7, 2010, 10:14 pm

Thanks so much for this, bookmarked for sure.

Doesn't it cost money to post in the adult services section? Ill try this very soon, hope it works!

imkiwiournot - July 8, 2010, 1:05 am

ya it says they ill charge 5$ or 10$

did you just let them charge you or did you bypass this thing?

Scotty™ - July 8, 2010, 1:11 am

Im going to try this later, well i might change 20 to 5 or 10

WirelessNova - July 8, 2010, 5:37 pm

The best way to post is in the casual encounters section W4M. And then a title or message along the lines of "I'm looking for a driven individual who knows how to take care of a lady$" or something.

You'll get around 10 - 20 replies then usually you can get atleast 3 to pay at $20 totaling around $60 a town on CL but if you lower the rates you'll definitely get probably around 7+ to pay for them.

Enjoy everyone don't need phone verification for the casual encounters section ;)

Ghost Face - July 8, 2010, 6:23 pm

Where do yuo ssay you live because in the us it says you still need phone verification?

ic london it DOES NOT ask for phone verification so this is a good place to prtend u are.

I just pmd you with my add tell me what yuo think does it look legit?

WirelessNova - July 8, 2010, 8:23 pm

I tried scranton, PA and under the casual encounters it never asked for phone verification. Another way to do this is register a free trial or something with a company like ring central or get a VOIP trial such as skype and verify that way. But I never had to do phone verification so I'm not sure why it's asking you all.

NOTE: I suggest registering the "fake girls email" first. Use GMAIL. Set the name as the fake girls name your using and use that email when creating the post instead of posting the email in the actual post. Looks more legit that way. And also do NOT use Hotmail because HOTMAIL only allows 100 Messages sent per 24 hour period. You will be doing a lot of emailing back and forth I usually stay away from using the instant messengers with these kind of clients because gmail allows you to block people unlike those they will harass you over and over when they find out your not really meeting up lol.

imkiwiournot - July 9, 2010, 9:49 am

how would you verify to them that you are real if they ask for a picture of you with a piece of paper with their name written on it?

xgh0stx - July 9, 2010, 1:11 pm

anybody try this yet and if so does it work??

WirelessNova - July 9, 2010, 9:29 pm

imkiwiournot - Thats where your SE Skills come in. Just be like "look i don't have time for all this non-sense. I'm a very busy women. If you don't believe me and don't want to hook up then don't waste my time."

It's really simple. They are more horny so they are thinking with their dicks not their heads.

imkiwiournot - July 9, 2010, 9:34 pm

haha alright and for paypal.

since my paypal is located to my real house located in the US, how to I make a verified paypal thats in london and all those?

Im pretty sure paypal will give out your info you inputed like address and everything to the person who paid you.

WirelessNova - July 9, 2010, 9:43 pm

You can click on profile and add/remove addresses. Just add another physical random address and set as your HOME address. They don't need to verify it.

WirelessNova - July 11, 2010, 8:03 am

I finally ran into the issues you all have seem to be finding with the verification thing on CL. I think another way around this is to use another email account. I haven't tried it yet but if you try another email or maybe a proxy it may let you around the verification if not try using google voice for the SMS message from CL. it should send SMS to your email I do believe after you setup your google voice account. you have nothing to worry about because what is being done isn't illegal. it borderlines promotion of prostitution but as long as you never agree to money for sex then your fine thats why as stated above that you should always just say we can discuss that later or something.

Has this method worked for anyone other than myself yet?

SohyunJang™ - July 11, 2010, 11:15 am

I'm going to attempt this in around 15 minutes. I need to change my street address and email. Any suggestions to the email for it to sound legitimate?

iSnow - July 11, 2010, 4:26 pm

I want to do this, but can someone please help me verify my CL account? I need a number to receive either a call or text with the number that verifies the account.

WirelessNova - July 11, 2010, 10:46 pm

For those running into this verification issue. if you have none of these ways to do this you can also buy a prepaid phone. $15 at your local walmart or free on the street. another option is try smaller cities and other email accounts.

Dieko - July 12, 2010, 5:18 am

Lol need phone verification. You can choose a other country without phone verification.

Wats this craglist that you guys talking about????
And is there any free chat site i can try and get money by this method?
I hope there is no risk in this...
Coz we make fake IDs and other PayPal fakes...

skim: Suggestions would be to change each ad you post. Don't duplicate ads make them each unique that way you don't have to worry about that duplication flag from craigslist. Just change a few lines and maybe the picture you add and the title and your good to go.

BTW: Anyone with any success stories yet besides me?

I've tried this method numerous times today, and I've had much success. All in all, my grand total of the night is, $140.00. This method is a great way to make some petty cash if you have the patience to do it. You must remember not to lose your patience with the "customer".

I think he meant that you are suppose to wait for their email than send the paypal payment details in a reply.

True. Everyone assumes their own risk. What you don't have to worry about though is feds kicking down your door. As long as you don't actually meet up or have any real intentions to meet up then its harmless. All people are doing technically at this point is buying pictures from you. So it borderlines legitimate sale of non tangible goods.

But most the time your fine. I never discuss prices for doing "things" or for meeting up I always say things like "we can discuss that after you show your seriousness by buying my pictures first." or something along those lines. I never have discussed a price or what will go on "later when we meet".

And also I don't send my email or paypal email until AFTER they send me an email first via craigslist.

Or use a friends mobile, if they get phoned they'll be like WTF? And they hang up and everyone goes on as before.
