Thread: "AV Disabler" - SCAMMED BY Mr J Smith uid=2562008 -Amount 20\$

marabunta159 - May 17, 2016, 12:16 pm

Hi guys,

to make it short, we agreed to 20$ which I sent. But he never delivered or answered any pm after the transaction was confirmed.

I wrote a few pms after confirmation and requested him to send it to me.

He is/was still posting in the forum and therefore I assume he read and/or ignored my messages.

I just saw that all Development and Sales threads for "AV Disabler" have been closed...

Username: Mr J Smith

Changed Username to:Trololololol

UID:2562008

Amount:20

What went wrong? Never delivered or answering pms after payment Message him again requesting your product or a refund. If he declines or ignores that, upload more proof back to here. Hopefully everything gets resolved.

marabunta159 - May 17, 2016, 1:26 pm

I will send him a message again, but here is some more proof:

Hope this gets resolved, I don't think he scammed for $20 though.

?Ñåzg?l - May 17, 2016, 5:21 pm

If it does not get resolved soon then I suggest you add him to the deal dispute database this will add him to the HF alert list and would help other members to decide before dealing <https://hackforums.net/disputedb.php>

if he is on the HF alert list it would also force him to resolve this deal dispute as he is going to lose money if members don't want to deal

Yeah, might add him to Database if this escalates.

marabunta159 - May 18, 2016, 9:28 am

I added him now. Thank you.

Silicon Valley - May 18, 2016, 4:31 pm

Legitimate report OP. I've added the user into the HFAlert DB to hopefully prevent further damage. Sorry for your loss.

VirtualMon3y - May 20, 2016, 12:59 am

I certainly belive Op that he got scammed and sorry for his loss but it does seem out of character for MrJSmith after all the hard work he put in that project.

The name change also seems suss to me as well.... Sure his account wasn't jaked? His IP is now matching one other member...Just a thought.

Hope you get this resolved OP.

marabunta159 - May 20, 2016, 9:26 am

nope he is still the same:

Last Login IP Change Date: 04-09-2016

His first message yesterday since scamming:
You will be refunded.

Eventually.

Give it 4 days to a week.

That "project" was just a few lines of code. He can't even properly remove an AV from the machine without rebooting it.

Sorry you got scammed @OP. You should never trust idiots that don't even know which language they made their tool in.

Insane Developer - May 23, 2016, 2:01 am

LOL why did you buy this? Sorry you got scammed, but this project is seriously shitty. No kidding.

marabunta159 - May 26, 2016, 5:51 am

Is there no ban, repfuck or any punishment for scammers?

VirtualMon3y - June 1, 2016, 12:21 am

Mr J Smith has been exiled although I dont know for what reason or for how long?

Armada - June 23, 2016, 7:29 pm

Is it just me or where the fuck is the actual BTC block chain URL for actual confirmation of any payment?

Am I blind? ?

... There is always a confirmation link to every transaction....

Without that, I would not even consider looking at this as a report honestly, I see PMs and conversation. no transaction.

VirtualMon3y - June 23, 2016, 11:29 pm

Armada has a good point. OP you should dig that info out and get this dealt with.

You sent $20.

But yeah he should be answering you.

please read it carefully, he said he is selling it for 30 and I would have a much better price which was 20$, also mentioned and confirmed.
