?cary - May 19, 2016, 9:49 pm

Hey everyone,

i don't know if its only me ? but , i PMed Omni like 3-4 days ago for Paid stickys, till now there is no response. Also he does not seem to be active in past few days.

I hope he is alright and doing well , anyone got news/idea about this ?

EDIT :

He is too much busy from past few days , just a personal message to omni : take care of yourself ,don't push yourself too hard .

I'd assume he has a priority list, and right now stickies aren't at the top for him. No big deal, just wait a few days before sending a bunch of PMs.

This might be correct option, i should probably wait for 1-2 days more before sending him another PM.

Actually been mostly offline as I deal with a personal issue. Nothing terrible. Just having to deal with it and I've been unable to do my normal 8-10 hour work day. Only been online maybe 1 hour a day. :(

Tomorrow if I'm lucky I can get more done.
