Thread: Killer landing page for eWhoring. Make \$32 per guy visiting it

The Slug - May 21, 2016, 3:43 pm

A lot of people don't want to accept money via paypal and other methods from ewhoring because it can get your paypal banned and expose your real information.

It's much more safe to send eWhore traffic to affiliate offers. Check this offer out, I've been absolutely killing it with this landing page:

http://jump.votrack.us/aff_c?offer_id=163&aff_id=1002&url_id=257

Whenever a guy fills out that form and submits his CC info you get paid $32 as an affiliate.

Some of you may have already read my ewhore guide I wrote last year or read some of my posts about the affiliate network ViceOffers.com but basically this is how it works:

1. Become an affiliate (not advertiser) at viceoffers.com
2. Get your tracking link (the link I posted above works great, it's offer 163 in the network)
3. Tell your guys something like "You can see more of my pics here, my phone #'s also on there. Btw, we live close to each other so i'm willing to meet up if I think you deserve it"

The landing pages also support geo-location. So the guys thing the girl is located near them.

I am one of the designers at ViceOffers and can build custom landing pages for our affiliates, so if you have a specific girl I can build you a landing page with her pics and name and whatever other info you want on the landing page.

If you're interested in running this on your eWhoring traffic shoot me a PM with your skype and i'll add you. ViceOffers has been around for over a year now and has grown massively with tons of members from HF. We payout weekly net-0 which is the fastest paying network around. Our payouts are integrated with Tipalti so you know you can trust that you'll get your money like clockwork every Tuesday.

If this is legit, I will literally make 1000s from you guys, so I will be signing up soon :P

When you sign up make sure to send heiko.viceoffers a message on skype. He'll get you approved quicker. And yea it's legit mate i've been running this method for a long time

There are other offers in ViceOffers that payout a lot, but this landing page does much better than a standard dating site. My EPC's are always higher with this LP even compared to $100+ CPA's

(May 21, 2016 05:43 PM)Terminator3018 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Can anyone confirm us if this actually work? :)

Hopefully someone will try it out and confirm their success on here soon, but ViceOffers has been on HF for over a year and on BHW for even longer and ewhore chatters are def. killing it with these pages. Me and my brother both do amazing sales with our leads. We do both eWhore (chat) traffic and email traffic (May 21, 2016 05:48 PM)SirTingui Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) where does the money land?

Not sure who's money you are talking about, but they guys signing up they don't get charged anything until 2 days later, unless they cancel. Their transactions are processed by our banks.

If you are wondering how you get paid as an affiliate then this is how that works. All payments are processed by Tipalti. They are a huge company and have been around forever. You can pick if you want to be paid by paypal, payoneer, wire, direct deposit or even check (checks are oldschool! Don't do checks lololol)

Impervious. - May 21, 2016, 7:16 pm

does this work with prepaid visa's? since all you state is credit card, prepaids theoretically fall in that category.

Stoke - May 21, 2016, 7:19 pm

Very nice.

I'll definitely be testing it out in the next few days, will edit this post with earnings. :-)

I'll be honest with you i'm not 100% sure if pre-paid cards work or not. But no normal person uses these unless they are trying to create fraud sales. Fraud sales are usually caught by our bank right away. Especially if 3-4 sales come in from a affiliate and all sales are cancelled.

good luck earning with this shit. 100% scam. this viceoffer.com bullshit belongs to another HF member (i dont remember the name right now. i will update it later) when you guys direct your traffic to his site, he earns when your victim buys premium services and you get nothing. im not going to say anymore lol.

Coming from someone who has never sent us traffic. There are a lot of guys who have sent us fraud and then write bad reviews when they don't get paid out.

You shouldn't call someone a scam you have never worked with or know nothing about. That's what little kids on the internet do. I work with viceoffers full time. I know everyone who works for ViceOffers. People on HF talked a lot of crap about ViceOffers being a scam when we first came out over a year ago, saying its a scam network that will be gone in a couple months. No we're here to stay and have a huge team working on our offers, landing pages and tools everyday.

Thanks for your input

Yeah really? since u asked for it, you said you are now 1 year old. Let's see some payment proofs huh? Like real payment proof from PayPal or something? If this is not a scam, you will reply with some screenshots and nothing else. I have proof that you are nothing but a shitty scamming shitbag. I will post them here if I need to. Ohh wait. Check my previous reply. There is a link to another HF thread which agrees with me.

The members have decided. I've already met some great HF members today from this thread. There's a ton of threads of people saying they get paid out weekly.

I don't know what your problem is. Hmmm you just joined HF a month ago. Yea your some skid that wants to troll people and too busy wasting time. Honest suggestions for you mate, learn html, css and php and you'll be able to make a lot of money online.

I use my skills to build epic landing pages for ViceOffers affiliates and they bank hard on them and obviously I want to grow ViceOffers huge since i'm part of their network.

If you're not a bitch add heiko.viceoffers on skype and have a chat with him about the network so I can post your chat and show the rest of HF members how immature and stupid you are

Mr Chow - May 22, 2016, 2:27 am

Lets be real, no one on HF shares or gives out methods out of the goodness of their heart. You are the real person that makes the bank here, not us...

Do you not know how affiliate marketing works?

You're welcome to keep using paypal or amazon gift cards, but this WILL make you more money. Especially if you automate the process with bots. You can't make a living off eWhoring if you don't automate the process. Do you want to just manually chat with guys the rest of your life?

There's so much hate on HF lol. We don't get these naive comments on BHW and WF and the coders section (people that know what affiliate marketing is)

We've been on HF for over a year with a ton of great reviews. And we've been on BHW even longer. I know you're an idiot because you ask for screenshots as proof when everyone knows screenshots are super easy to fake.

Here's our BHW thread:

<http://www.blackhatworld.com/seo/viceoffers-exclusive-affiliate-network-dating-iframes-health-bizzopp-loan-trial.762044/>

Add heiko.viceoffers on skype. We'll send you plenty of proof. You're such a troll mate lololol I can't tell if you're being serious or not. If you know anything about business you'd know that keeping a good affiliate around for years is WAY more profitable than scamming someone for a few thousand bucks

I don't understand why you're being so defensive about this the user above had an excellent point, besides it seems as if you're trying too hard to convince us that you're legit yet we don't see any proof to reinforce that point - sure screenshots are easy to fake; what about proof from actual members whom cashed out or etc? That's not even to mention that your CPA company has only been advertised on hacking related sites and doesn't have much SEO.

Lastly if anyone is actually interested in making this much you don't need to join any CPA network - they'll just end up taking a % for doing absolutely nothing. All you do is go directly to the source, in that case i see some company called "SOUTH POINTE ADVERTISING SL a/k/a SillyPeopleNeedLoveToo.com" [seems sketch but meh] but even then i think that's yet another affiliate, Just go to the source and request to become affiliate and keep 100% of your profits that way.

I'm being defensive because he's saying we are 100% fraud when he's never worked with us.

And I did post proof. I sent the link to our BHW thread where you can read a ton of members saying they get paid out. The only people we don't payout are the ones who send us fraud.

And why would you assume we don't own our offer direct? We own our own payment processors and banks and have our own offers that you're not going to find on other networks. So yes we are a direct source.

So many people here just try to give their input about what they think is right because of some things they've read and by all means i'm not saying people shouldn't give their input. But it's super annoying when people accuse us of things that aren't true at all. I think you'd get a little frustrated too in my position

I'm only reaching that assumption because you're advertising on HF and not even in a professional manner either, Call me crazy but i'd assume that anyone who can offer such high offers and make as much bank as you've claimed throughout this thread would bother to launch an decent marketing campaign and not just have some random user -

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4797605> simply post a C&P thread.

I'm not trying to get in a back & forth flame-war here but i never see 'OgMobi, CrackRev, CPAE etc.' encourage their users to use eWhoring for affiliating or be so persistent to gain members - so you can see why i'd raise an eyebrow.

Either way best of luck selling your site to people! ?

Gotcha, yea well we are all over. And our offers are a lot more 'adult/dating' oriented than my boys at OGmobi so that's why we tap into places like this. We launch massive campaigns all over, but if we can find some solid eWhore guys then there's no reason not to post here.

The only reason i'm being persistent on this new offer we launched is because when I did similar eWhore tactics I would have wished to have a page like this and I can build custom pages for the guys here so I thought it would be a great place to find a few big pushers.

What's your aff-id or email at ViceOffers so I can tell you what happened. We have a $100 minimum withdrawl limit. So chances are you never hit the threshold.

If that's the case let me know and i'll get you an early payout

Zheruel - May 22, 2016, 3:37 pm

It's highly likely this guy is either faking this and taking the money for himself or making ridiculous amounts while you make a measly 32$ per sale. If you were to do CPA I highly recommend you go directly to the source to ensure you keep 100% of your profits.
