Thread: [\[Official\] Anime Discussion Hub || READ BEFORE MAKING THREADS](#)

Aura - May 22, 2016, 3:56 pm

neightworks got closed, but I don't want to see a good thread like this die (since it's actually useful, at least, for me), I decided to take over it for the time being, and keep it updated.

Original thread: [\[Anime\] Anime Discussion Hub || READ BEFORE MAKING THREADS](#)

In addition, I adjusted the list so it's in alphabetical order, and I'll probably be adding threads manually as they are being created in the AA section, so this list will be as up to date as possible.

PLEASE KEEP THIS TOWARDS THE TOP

Welcome to the AA discussion Hub, here you will find links to the thread discussing specific anime. If you do not see the anime you're looking for, you may open a new discussion thread, if you open a new discussion for an anime that already has a discussion thread, you will be shunned, pointed at, and forever be known as that guy. Grave Digging is allowed, if the anime you wish to discuss has not been discussed for a long time do not be afraid to bump it up, and especially do NOT create a new thread for it.

Discussion threads for currently airing anime should NOT contain spoilers outside of spoiler tags, if the spoiler has already happened in the anime you do not need to use spoiler tags, though it would be highly appreciated. Same goes for your hypotheses, it SHOULD be in a spoiler, but does not have to be.

Please submit discussions with the following code:

Code url=(link)[/url]

Also, most of the discussion threads (if not all) follow the format below, if it can help you create your own discussion threads.

This format is now enforced if you want your thread to be added to this compilation list. Of course, the layout and stuff can be different however it needs to include at minimum the information listed below (optionals are optional obviously). If you have a thread that exists for an Anime already, doesn't follow that format and want it to be added here, simply adjust it.

Title: Use the [Anime] prefix, with the Anime name, which gives: [Anime] Anime Title

Code [align=center][img]ANIME IMAGE[/img][[/align]

[quote]SYNOPSIS/PLOT/SUMMARY[/quote]

Season(s): Number of season(s)

Episode(s): Number of episode(s)Of course, you can add more stuff like:

Code Related: Related Anime

Prequel: Link to the Anime's prequel

Sequel: Link to the Anime's sequel

Link to a teaser or opening video of the AnimeMake sure that you use links to relevant sources such as MyAnimeList (MAL), Hummingbird, etc.

People will still always make threads before looking however still a good thread, why was he closed?

Aura - May 22, 2016, 4:03 pm

No idea why he was closed. Though if this thread could be used as an index, it would be nice. I'll see if -Nas, King Cin and Viper wants to plug it in their stickies, as there's more chances it'll be used that way.

Correct me if I'm wrong, but I think this thread is for the Manga, not the Anime, right?

Jackie Chun - May 23, 2016, 12:12 am

Already outdated, there is a lot of currently airing animes with threads for them. How about doing some better research before attempting to make sticky quality thread.

Will add your Outlaw Star to the list, though I've been wondering if I should add Ken's thread as well, since they are only reviews, not discussion threads. Even if it's obvious that they are going to turn into discussions.

It's actually really rare for "index" threads to be stickied, and I don't expect this one to be since it's a simple list. It would be nice if it was stickied and used, but that's it.

Maybe we should ask Tasemu to close duplicate discussion threads, and only keep the ones listed in this thread as "official", who knows.

Sounds like a plan, btw do you know how to "follow" or "keep tabs" of threads on HF so that I don't have to keep scrolling through the pages to find them?

Edit: Done. If I missed any threads, please feel free to link them there so I can add them.

Added alphabet division under the "Finished" listed, and also added the air dates for the Anime under "Currently Airing/About to be aired" according to their page on MAL.

Black Hole, for Saikin, can you format the thread a bit more and add more information like the number of season(s), episode(s), even genre(s), etc. A link to MAL would be good too. Just so we have more information on the Anime other than a feedback or current impressions. Also, is it possible to update the screenshot in the Nisekoi thread since it's gone? Once done let me know :)

Sounds like a good idea, I might go back to a few and do it (I already have Shining Finger for G Gundam tho so I'm already all set on that one ;))

Aura - July 30, 2016, 7:44 pm

That would be a good idea.

Also I'll be enforcing a basic set of information to be included in the discussion threads if they want to be added to this list. Just so a thread have all that information needed, and not just someone who post a thread with the Anime title and say "It's awesome guys, watch it!".

Mhm, so far for my threads I've been trying to include a good amount of info. I think a good thread should be structured like this:

(Title, Bold and may include alternative name or English name)

Anime Promo Poster (most can be found off MAL)

Anime Synopsis (Usually from MAL, however any respected source may be used. Also recommended to be used with a spoiler as to prevent unnecessary post length and in case some wish not to see too much detail before watching.)

Basic information (Season(s), Eps, Genres, Dates Aired, etc) and a source link to a page (usually MAL, etc)

Video of either anime trailer or anime OP, etc

Brief or medium sized thoughts on the anime (I have been trying to use the same technique I have been seeing on MAL's reviews which I find helpful: Thoughts on 1) Story 2) Art 3) Sound 4) Characters 5) Overall/Enjoyment.) Then wrap up with whether you'd recommend this or not, etc.

Reminder to anyone in the thread to use spoilers for those who haven't seen the anime yet

I think something along these lines would be effective

Chips Ahoy McCoy - July 30, 2016, 9:24 pm

We should have these threads as a sticky for the new seasons. That'd be awesome.

Aura - August 3, 2016, 6:30 pm

You can suggest any Anime, the date, type, genre, etc. doesn't matter, as long as they are considered Anime (hell, even Avatar would fit in). The only requirements are listed at the end of the OP (basically what kind of information needs to be present in the discussion thread). If the Anime is currently airing or about to be aired, I'll place it in the first category to bring more attention to it.

I'm amazed you haven't either :o and ye I've noticed in recent years that longer titles are becoming commonplace, probably since many shorter names have been already used or are associated with certain anime, etc.

Reported threads has been added.

Series that were done airing were moved out from the "Currently Airing/About to air" section.

Added a new "Upcoming season" with the link to the AniChart Summer 2017 list.

More threads will be added as I'll review them today.
