Thread: In need of a person that can help me Get in to uni

nadianation1 - May 24, 2016, 2:54 pm

Hallo world!

I need a person that can hack in to the university and help me get in.

I can not get in the normal way because I hit rock bottom a couple of years ago. My mental health and physical health crashes and that's because of for various reasons.

I'm doing a lot better now, but because of this crash I never got to finish high school. I'm now 23 yrs old with the biggest wish to start at the university to the fall.

I know I'm a smart girl with a lot to give to this world, I just got sick in a really bad time in my life.

Pleas inbox me if you or anyone you know can help

Is there a monetary reward? If so let me know how much and I may help you. Also, this should be posted in the requests for hacking section.

are you in the US?

I myself went to uni in UK and view it as a cashcow scheme degrees arent worth much anymore imo. Its not worth the debt. If i could go back I would find what i wanted to do and throw all time and effort into learning getting certs get involved with community the lot.

Unis in the UK don't seem to be that big of a deal. Try getting into a trade, or come to the US. Our community colleges always allow yoh to enter, and they're a great starting point

Course you'll need a visa and everything.. .

Also going about it in a more illegal way will not help you.
