I have 3-4 invite codes left to give away. I am going to give these out to anyone who wants one but you must have at least 50 post to get one.

its back up yes but service is really shitty so I wound up spending my coins and buying invites for you guys. I plan to make a similar site in the future with good service

I am out of invites. Also there was a rollback on the site so you probably dont have as much coins as you think you do.
