Thread: [\[SELLING\] \[50% OFF\] Overwatch/ Overwatch Origins Edition \[PC\] \[LOTS OF STOCK\]](#)

D?????????????ark - May 27, 2016, 2:23 pm

Yo, so I posted a thread about my Overwatch accounts, was only expecting to sell a couple but the interest is crazy! Tons of people have purchased them from me and I have heard no problems yet.

So ill keep this short and sweet.

Selling both:

Overwatch (Regular) - $20

and

Overwatch (Origins Edition) - $30

These are accounts, the accounts are fully secured. You get full email access to the account and full password, username etc etc. (You can change everything).

"What is the Regular Version?"

In the Overwatch Regular bundle, you just get the game.

No added items, skins etc etc.

"What is the Origin Version?"

Well see for yourself:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Anyone that is interested, be sure to PM me or post below.

Only accepting Paypal from certain members, the rest will have to pay via BTC or CS:GO Skins.

Ellie Goulding - May 27, 2016, 6:09 pm

Hey, how did you obtain these accounts? Will they get banned? Will I lose the game after a while? Are these legitimately obtained and legal?

I plan on buying it 2 copies for me and a friend.

anatho - May 29, 2016, 5:15 pm

Is it really so difficult to write a price on a thread where one is selling a product? 50% off OF WHAT? prices are different in each country, I do not know which country you are from. Also one and the same game is sold for different prices, go to gamekeyfinder.com or ebay and compare, you will see lots of different prices for same game.

Also I was asking 2x for paypal acceptance because I do not have btc and also not planning to get it because for sure the price for the game is lower than minimum exchange amount trustworthy exchangers ask for, and if not then your price is too high anyway.

Aksui - May 30, 2016, 7:05 pm

Haven't had a chance to play it much and just logged in today with my Overwatch gone. Disappointing but hoping for a refund.

Wonder Boy - May 30, 2016, 9:38 pm

At 50% with the above users post, this looks grim.

Was hoping to purchase too.

Posting to keep myself updated with how this goes.

Ricky Quinn - May 30, 2016, 9:53 pm

Yea blizzard is really easy to card, so probably all these accounts that people bought have carded overwatch on them...

biscuit deluxe - May 30, 2016, 9:57 pm

Are these cracked accounts? Any chance of losing access?

I would definitely look at the OP's prior scam reports, and previous posts in this thread. It's pretty obvious these accounts are carded.

epik brother please be safe this is carded i think. if u want overwatch buy it with your rogue $$$ ur rich

Përkan777 - May 31, 2016, 5:59 am

As it seems these might be carded so everyone who bought should be careful to not get into deeper problems...

kiNg OwL - May 31, 2016, 7:25 am

I've had my account for a few days and still working perfectly fine, I've received no emails from blizzard either o.o

I have a credit card added to my account but it shows nothing in the transaction history ?
Maybe it's still "validating"?

ok I will buy elsewhere. It took more than a week to get even to know how much the price is. Also I do not have time to search on forums who is selling CS GO skins, who of them is taking paypal and who is serious. Way too much effort. Also it looks like you are using ELV for obtaining these accounts, so they won't stay.

Le Max - May 31, 2016, 4:12 pm

I paid for it without looking to see what has been going on, will post a review if the account stays active.

stanley92 - May 31, 2016, 11:48 pm

Still waiting for my order. Will confirm once delivered.

he told me he's having some internet issues.

Idk, my origin copies didn't work but he gave me a regular copy and it works. I'm just waiting for the $10 refund to balance it out. If this stays working for me I'll be a satisfied customer.

Don't waste your time and money guys.

He is using ELV for obtaining the accounts and all of them will be blocked sooner or later. Normally sooner.

anatho - June 2, 2016, 12:37 pm

(Jun 1, 2016 06:04 PM)Kweh Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) What exactly is ELV

ELV is some sort of electronic cheque payment.

E.g. you can generate a fake address and fake bank account and then use this for payment, so you immediately get the digital game, but it takes a few days till payment goes through. So if you used fake details the bank will refuse the payment but you already have the game at that time.

But Blizzard are not as stupid as they used to be so in most cases, after bank refuses payment your account will be blocked within a few days.

Closing this thread, PMing everyone in response.

The person I was getting them off seemed to have been getting them illegitimately.

Will work on sorting this with every person I have sold to.

He had been selling me steam accounts for years with no problems, this is a first.
