Thread: Create a 2K subforum in the Gaming section.

milkpop - May 27, 2016, 9:44 pm

There are a variety of 2K games that I wish had their sections on HF. Why not make a 2K Games section within the Gaming forum tab. Omni could create prefixes like [NBA 2k17] [FIFA 2k17] etc. Just an idea, as a variety of these games are talked about but do not have designated areas to discuss them. Or even a sports game section.

idk

Too many different 2k variations. Madden, FIFA, NFL, NHL, NBA, etc. each come out with a game or two a year. There would be too many prefixes for Omni to add.

Maybe make it a thing with sub-sections? It wouldn't be that bad as NBA 2K16 is all I play lmao Yeah, I guess so. But still, a section where we could talk about these games perhaps?

I think a 2K games section would be nice. Instead of adding prefixes every year, there could just be prefixes for the specific sports and the year could be specified in the title.

Or just a straight up Sports gaming section?

Bluffer - May 28, 2016, 12:26 am

Great idea, lots of quality games by 2K.

Stashyy - May 28, 2016, 12:28 am

I'll fuck all ya niggas up in NBA 2k16 ya don't want this work!

This is a nice suggestion though. Would love to see it happen.

Elegant - May 28, 2016, 7:53 am

A 2k subforum with the different game prefixes such as: NBA, NFL, NHL, FIFA, etc. This would be nice and more organized.

But then you have to remember that there are different gaming platforms for these games, and the section would probably be low quality as fuck with people asking "who wants to 1v1 me? i'll rek u".

That is not what this suggestion is at all. The suggestion is to ADD a subforum and that the new subforum would have thread prefixes to organize the new subforum.

These are very popular games.

Vitani - May 29, 2016, 12:07 pm

I get the suggestion, but i think all those prefixes would make it a mess instead of organize it due to the many 2k games being released already.

The prefixes aren't the important part here. They could easily omit the year: [FIFA], [Madden], [NHL], [WWE].

We already have the FIFA forum: <https://hackforums.net/forumdisplay.php?fid=319>

Why not reconfigure it to accommodate the other games? Don't get caught up on the small detail of the suggestion instead of looking at the larger picture.

A NEW ERA... - May 29, 2016, 12:37 pm

I'm a god at NBA 2K16, don't see many people talking about it on this forum tho.

Point taken. I think this could actually work out if we had a subforum like this with a prefix for each 2k game.

I'm interested to see what Omniscient thinks about this suggestion.

There is something wrong here.

Madden, FIFA are both EA Sports games

NHL 2k is only for ios and android.

MLB 2k has been abandoned.

You have in reality only two games from 2k sports. NBA and WWE.

nuvexy - May 29, 2016, 8:30 pm

There just needs to be a sports games section.

70s - June 1, 2016, 6:43 am

a sports game section may be nice will not lie

illuminati? - June 1, 2016, 1:20 pm

You realize you can make threads about these games under "Playstation, or Xbox 360, Xbox One, & Live Gaming" right?

Creating a new subforum would kill the activity in these areas.

Smh, terrible suggestion.

prada ? - June 1, 2016, 1:22 pm

I opt to become a moderator of this section

M?tt - June 1, 2016, 1:57 pm

Part of me thinks that this could open up the thought that other games deserve a sub-section, that really don't. I just started playing NBA 2K16 and really like it. Maybe we should just have a "sports games" sub-section. Either way, I'm in favor of this.

Omniscient - June 1, 2016, 2:07 pm

Meh, probably eventually a sports forum in Game tab.
