I'm Raz and I currently hold an official management license from Belgium. This means the government approves of my skill to run every aspect of a bussines without fail. Next to that I also have a general economics degree.

I'm currently rounding up year 2 (out of 3) of my Finance and Insurance degree which means I've passed three different types of salestraining:

You can click any of the below to see where I enjoyed the course

Bank sales

Insurance sales

In other words I am proficient in the sale and post-sale support of both tangible and intangible products.

T.O.S

All payments happen up front.

Only BTC (and Paypal from Apex- & HQ members)

Prices are subject to change.

Extending a contract does not induce a change in price.

I can deny any and all offers if I wish to do so.
