Germany69420 - May 29, 2016, 4:12 am

The site is owned by Queen. A scamming whore lmao

Omoi - May 29, 2016, 4:14 am

If you want to join they want your HF user ID, this could be been used as phishing site, to gain accounts to scam.

minimalist - May 29, 2016, 4:15 am

I don't feel that this thread was necessary. The site loads like ass, it looks like ass, and people should have the common sense not to use the forum.

She's been out, she's a dirty whore who only got a few months without internet access. ?

I don't think it's ran by her though.

Portugal - May 29, 2016, 11:02 am

They are so pathetic.

Can't think of their own ideas for a site.

Darkwin - May 29, 2016, 4:54 pm

I believe it is also a phishing page, They kept spamming my YT videos with their site on the comments.

Sad what a waste of a domain.

Can't do anything but agree with this.

If someone gets scammed under my name via that page it's not on me.

It's their responsible. Hackforums.net is the only forum I'm hanging on so.

Skeetz - May 29, 2016, 7:05 pm

Jak! - May 31, 2016, 4:59 pm

The site will be down within a month tops, just like the rest I've seen.

Grammar Rays - May 31, 2016, 4:59 pm

If it's censored, Omni knows about it I guess.

He can DMCA to their host but they've got all kinds of things in front of the server so he'd have to spend some time on that one.

Not sure if Cloudflare can assist with a DMCA.

Sta.ze - May 31, 2016, 5:06 pm

Literally took me 2 seconds to find the name of this site. pathetic.

Not sure, but it's a good community alert. There are so many fake accounts it's ridiculous. They should really study marketing a little more, because their strategies are really transparent and retarded.

?BORNE? - June 1, 2016, 9:24 am

Not impersonating users just because they have the same username

Kooper - June 1, 2016, 9:27 am

Should we take the site down OP?

I have tools to do it also.

Arizonalce - June 1, 2016, 9:31 am
