Thread: 1000th Post feedback

S????i - May 29, 2016, 10:20 am

Hello HF!

This is my 1000th post feedback.

I understand that a thousand posts is not a great deal compared to a lot of other active members with many more thousands than I have, however today is a day to celebrate! ?

There isn't that much to say about HF other than there are some amazing people that I've met. Really kind people that are so insightful about everything.

I've lurked around the anime section, eventually introduced to Mavis and everyone else.

I'm really enjoying HF and I'm glad I can say that I have been a member for over a year now and I still visit this site daily.

I love the members on HF, so this is a special thanks to all of you who have made my day enjoyable.

Thanks HF!
