Thread: Upgraded users making fun of normal members

$pooky - June 2, 2016, 10:51 am

I was selling AGC of $100. Few upgraded members here wanted me to go first (Most likely to scam me) I deny to go first then they negative rep my account. I'm a member here for nearly 5 year now never happened to me before. I've even noticed members who joined forum in 2016 have average 25-30 +rep and ended up scamming other members I've only +1 reputation in 5 years but I was happy I never cared for having +reputation but when I see negative It feels bad. I think reputation system must change here before regular members who can't afford to pay for L33t or U3BR will leave this place.

Tell whoever wants to deal with you that you will deal with a middleman.

If they don't want to use a trusted middleman then move on and don't do business....it's pretty simple.

Exactly what I said that would be the smart thing too do! That's all you got to do it's not that hard.

Ignore "SethCurry" Omni has stated before the reputation system is a privilege for upgraded users. If you think it constitutes rep abuse, you can still PM staff, or talk to those tho negged you and try to work it out, if you're not wanting to go first, or are having trading complications, use a middleman, or just cut that trade and find another. Regardless of your account age, multiple statistics go into deals, trust scans make a major portion of "safe deals".

The fact that yours is an ancient account doesn't imply that you're trusted, as well as having a lot of rep doesn't mean that an upgraded member is trusted.

As @Portugal suggested If I was in your shoes I'd look for a middleman or consider upgrading my account.

EDIT: typo.

Ask to use a middleman. Simple. Don't complain about rep either, that will get you negged more.

If they laugh at you. tell them your dad's a cop and will have the swat right over.

No need to be fucking rude my friend. You couldve just suggested using a MM in a nice way, and if you don't like the thread just skip it.

@OP, You can always use a MiddleMan ! I would suggest Minimalist, confirm its him on HF first if youre going to deal on skype ! GL.

I understand that. But why -1 negative reputation If we didn't even made a deal.

I don't want reputation guys I'm asking for something that must be changed sooner or later.

It won't be changed.You can change yourself. Maybe upgrade the account? Give something back to community? Time is not the only thing you need to gain trust. You can't change the world but you can change yourself. Move on

It's a valid rep, if you've been here for 5 years I'd think you would have read the rules.

Also I would do the same thing. I wouldn't go first to you, if you wouldn't use a middleman and only wanted me to go first to you I would have also put you on my ignore list.

I was not denying to use mm. They wanted me to go first? I felt they're going to scam. Look at my negative reputation please you will get an idea what was happened. If the deal was already canceled then why they're giving negative reputation?

Regardless, the reputation system won't change because you "feel bad" about a negative rep you received which is completely valid. This thread is useless, and can cause more harm than good.

You feedback is not appreciated. It's crap. It's dribble. It's nonsense.
