I'm the second one, it's 7:40 am here (Paris) and I was sleeping, I felled the need to poop and I woke up, I reply to an HF thread I was watching and BIM got it ! Awesome. I failed my whole life but god damn I got an award on HF. Life goal dudes.

Elegant - June 2, 2016, 10:41 pm

I'm the first person who got the award buddy. Read the award list. I'm the most luckiest here.

chase. - June 2, 2016, 10:41 pm

Looks like 4 people got it congrats to them all now let's see who wins this gold one! I have a feeling it's going to be some random kid

Riyu - June 2, 2016, 10:41 pm

This is such a cool thing to bring in positive vibes and also bring activity and HQ post from users.

Random - June 2, 2016, 10:42 pm

HOW ARE PEOPLE GETTING IT?

Dude it's only been out for like a few hours. I just really want it please give tips xD Thats exciting! Hoping for the green clover as ireland is one of my favorite countrys and I want to go back! Hopefully next St. Patricks day.

It's a cool idea, however I think it's really just going to generate even more shitposting. But, I may be proven wrong :^)

Factor9™ - June 2, 2016, 10:44 pm

this award looks sick. good to see that something is being brought to the forum to improve post quality and people can get rewarded for it. props to omni

Definitely not trying to fill this with 100 characters... heh. Also is there a way to find out who are getting it? I mean other than on the right hand side but like a list to show who have most recently gotten it? LMK

Do quotes count towards the character count? That's odd.

I believe they do as you can quote a post and not have any text of your own

TheSuspect - June 3, 2016, 1:44 am

This award looks pretty cool and I see that Young Thug already has the purple one, hopefully I can get this snazzy green award. I assume the award is automatically awarded once you trigger it?

I will probably never get it, I make less than 100 character posts.

.Jack - June 3, 2016, 1:51 am

I've been trying for ages no luck what so ever I might just call it a day and try another time, I nearly have 400 posts from trying to get it xD

Quux - June 3, 2016, 1:51 am

I didn't even know about the award until I received a message of Omi, pretty awesome haha

Roytoy - June 3, 2016, 1:51 am

Now I'm going to assume everyone who writes a semi-long post is just aiming for the award. (including me)

I don't think so. People like me, hardly take 100 characters ever to express their thoughts. duh.. oh wait...

I don't know.. Maybe you should try... Maybe you should not.. Am I there yet? Yep.
POSTTTT

xD Jokes aside, I'll go work outside than make 100 char posts everytime to get 24x24 pixels.

Ha Haaa - June 3, 2016, 2:03 am

I only think it's cool cause its a clover. Would be better if it's a 7 leaf clover.
Also how the fuck are we suppose to know if we type 100 characters?
This just seems like a method omni made to make hackforums more high quality. Little does he know 12 year old kids don't know how to be.

i'd rather be inside making extremely high quality 100 character posts so i can get 24x24 pixels, much better than "outside"

So far it seems to be working out. Pretty much every post on this thread has 100 characters.

yes but once everyone has the award people wont be bothered with it anymore so then we will need even more clovers!!

well eventually 2000 posts will be reached although it might take a while. and then you have to factor in that people can get closed but i'd say eventually a lot of people will get clovers idk

So the clover MUST appear within 2,000 posts or is there just a 1/2,000 chance of you getting it every post?

just a 1/2000 chance.

I'll be the first person to get all 3 in one post though, as I am the best.

i'm retarded when it comes to this shit, are you guaranteed to get the clover if you post 2000 posts with more than 100 characters?

No. I see where you got confused. In every single post you make there's a 1/2,000 chance that you'll get one of the clovers.

yes I understand that part, but does that mean if i make 2000 posts one of those posts will get me the award? I get the fact that it could happen on any post I make from this point forward thats over 100 characters but will you certainly get it if you make 2000 posts?

Prince of all Saiyans - June 3, 2016, 2:32 am

I think this award is really thought through. Omni talked about reviewing all winners and revoking the lqp winners. This means the award will boost activity and reward hq posting. I like it!

Nope. You might get it at your 1st post or your 10,000th post.

Maybe if I put it this way, you'll fully understand it:

There's a 0.0005% chance of you getting the green clover award with any post.

There's a 0.00008% chance of you getting the purple clover award with any post.

There's a 0.000002% chance of you getting the gold clover award with any post.

70s - June 3, 2016, 2:58 am

I must admit i have been posting more than i ever have trying to get this damn award but each post has to actually be thought out cause of the 100 character thing which was smart on omi to do
