Muhammad Ali is or was supposedly in the hospital there is reports spreading around that he has passed away.

The only fair source I have found so far is NBC News.

While I am not sure the true results just yet his health has been very bad and he has been loosing his fight with Parkinsons.

If anyone knows a reputable source with the confirmed condition please share that.

Yeah, he's dead as shit. I've been seeing it everywhere.

Parkinsons KO'd the shit out of him.

TOO SOON, I know. Honestly, though, sucks he's gone. He was a smart man.

He's dead.

Rest in peace, he was a cocky motherfucker and I never liked him, but a lot of people look up to him as an inspiration.

Damn, it sucks that he's gone. He really was one of the greatest.

To the user above, damn you jealous?

Ah, hearing this really makes me sick. He is truly a legend when it comes to boxing, and I am pretty sure people are gonna remember him through what he has achieved. :(

The last I read is that he wasn't dead lol. It went for a minor issue and was listed as fair.

He is officially dead, confirmed from various sources and Facebook news feed is spamming me with this news.

AMAVI - June 3, 2016, 10:24 pm

Man.. sad to see him pass.

RIP Muhammed Ali #Legend

I never admired him. I didn't like him, neither dislike him. I was neutral about him.
