You have wrong information in your title. You might want to change that.

I thought the title said 10,000 posts and 300 rep, I almost shit myself thinking you'd got the same posts and reputation as me in less than a year.

Anywho- thank you for the feedback. Now get 5,000 posts bruh.

Vitani's Mate - June 4, 2016, 6:42 am

Congrats on getting those milestones OP.

You must be very happy with those stats. :D

The feedback is nice and short.

I like things that are simple.

Also I think you forgot me in the shoutouts. xD

Ahaha jokes. I do hope you are here for much longer. Go for 10,000 posts this time.

Congratulations on 1,000 posts, the feedback could've been a little more in depth in regards to how you feel about groups, forums and community as a whole. It's kinda blunt and more like just shoutouts for reaching 1,000 posts. Regardless well done.

To be honest, not the best feedback... or even to call it that. I never understood why users' included reputation and post count in the thread title. It's supposed to be a feedback for the forum and an overall review.
