Going to be a skiller starting out, always loved the thought of being a skiller.

Ways to make money?

Anybody to talk to?

What CC to join?

Enjoying myself?

You should make an ironman c:

Join cc 'hfchat' or 'gentility'

I'm personally in gentility it's always active.

Yeah, join Gentility.

Quite a few of us from HF are over there.

Cool that's good! Thanks for the idea guys.

And an ironman skiller? I dunno. Once my stats are up there I plan on selling some gold here and there.

I hope your agility is fairly high so you can maximize your gains.

Go to al kharid and smelt gold ammy and sell then unstringed, I did this for a fast bond in a day.

Grabbing wine of zamorak is decent money but there are bots there but as long as you pay attention it is very easy to beat them to it and only 33 mage needed

Crafting rings is also profitable, sapphire or emeralds are usually best but the prices change, just find out which one is more profitable, but you will need a decent cash stack first to buy the supplies here
