Hello fellow HF members,

I started on HackForums as a complete newbie. Although I was really a noob scrub, I somehow stuck around and got used to HackForums bit by a bit. In the mean time, I earned some money and bought L33t for myself.

It's been around 50 days since I joined HackForums.

The past few days were the ones of best in my life. I am so happy to share my thoughts with HF members and I am genuinely happy that I came to known about HackForums. I feel like that if I never knew about HF, I'd feel somewhat empty.

I came here to look for some knowledge and I found myself doing nothing, sitting and replying to the posts in the Lounge.

I would like to mention a few members which I really like for one reason or another. But I won't be doing that. That would be too shallow. Why is that, you're wondering? It is because I love you all, just as my title says. There are many amazing individuals and if I forget someone I would feel like I wronged that person. Every single one of you matters a lot to me.

The recent Clover Awards really got me hooked. I couldn't possibly resist the challenging spirit that was apparent in Lounge so I went on a spree. It resulted into me getting the wonderful purple award. Although I can't say I'm a HQ user or anything of the sort, I really enjoyed to post around and just have fun.

I would like to apologize for bragging so much after I've got the Purple Clover award. I hope that you understand how happy I was when I got that PM from Omniscient saying that I've won an award.

And the last but not least, today I joined Nightmare. I really like this group of users and they all seem like nice and unique people. I hope to stay in Nightmare and to make a HF even more lively than it already is. I hope that somewhere in the future my presence would bring some more fun and amusement to the HF members. Shout out to them for being an amazing user group.

I would like to thank you all for making HF a very special place for a scrub like me.

Thank you for reading my thread.

Damn you got the clover award mad early!

Nice feedback thread nonetheless. You're still a noob! Haha

FreeAnneFrank - June 5, 2016, 12:13 pm

Wondering when our beloved Omniscient will find out you are a multi and ban your ass from the forum.

Giving you 1 month max.

Yeah, it was some major luck on my part.

It is weird although, I've never really won anything much and out of the blue I win the purple one. :)

Thanks for your reply, means a lot to me.

Rigel - June 5, 2016, 12:14 pm

Congratulations on the purple award, happy that you're somewhat new but are at least mixing in with the active users. Nice feedback thread, we love having you!

I'm not a multi so Omniscient won't have anything to find out. :)

It took me forever to reach 1k post and you knocked it out in a month so congrats.

I think this is too soon to leave feedback, but whatever floats your boat. Lucky ass got that award too in a months time. ;P

Thank you for replying.

It might be too early for me to leave feedback but I felt like I should commemorate these past days somehow.

I won an award, got 256 posts in a day and I got to 1000 posts.

I also met many wonderful people and enjoyed talking to them, so why not? :)

I already had a guy offer me 20$ BTC to transfer it over, lol.

Krave - June 5, 2016, 12:27 pm

Vouch, Exuberance is one of those noobs that got the award instead of a seasoned HF veteran.

Either way congratulations, have spoken to you on numerous occasions and you seem like a good bloke.

No problem. I'm trying to write good sentences to the best of my extent although I can't really sound too HQ most of the time.

In my honest opinion I only see you trying to pass 100 characters to be in with a chance at another clover. I don't like award whores, that's why I don't like the content you post. It's nothing against you personally, it's your posting attitude if that makes sense?

In every thread and post which I do, I attempt to provide atleast some thought of mine. I don't really think that you have any stronger basis to report any of my posts but if you are so bored that you have nothing better to do than to whine about someone's quality, alright, go ahead. I won't complain nor I will attempt to correct you in any possible way.

You've gone and blown it out of proportion lol. I simply said you're a lounge casual and looking to try get all the clover awards. I wasn't trying to insult you and if I have I apologise but I guess we will see what happens. Best of luck in getting those others.

I can understand that you are attempting to use well-thought and high quality words and sentences in your posting but sometimes it isn't just possible to write in such a way 24/7. I've been a top poster for a day, yet I can't say that my posts are any special or any HQ than someone's else.

I will however take your words to my mind and I will attempt to get some more quality in my posts. Thank you for your opinion and sorry if my words insulted you.

It's quite alright, just remember one thing though, being the top poster of the day does not make you any more high quality or low quality. It's about the content you write.

Anarchist07 - June 6, 2016, 4:15 am

Really impressive statistics for your account considering the join date you have. Keep up the activity and the high quality posts, very enjoyable seeing it.

I have the same idea, I want to have all 3 by the end of 2016. Though in 6 months I could probably do 36k posts maximum which isn't really a high chance for obtaining the Golden.

Let's take the discussion to le Lounge, don't want this thread to get spammy.

Will be locking it.
