If Hackforums closes down for some unfortunate reasons, what would be the one thing about it that you would miss the most?

$uicide - June 5, 2016, 2:39 pm

o??ervan? - June 5, 2016, 2:40 pm

Definitely my chances of receiving the clover award. Nah, I'm kidding. I think the community here would be the only thing that will be missed. I love y'all, y'all are my family from now on.

The scammers, I will miss the scammers.

Roytoy - June 5, 2016, 2:44 pm

HF is nothing without it's community/people making that community. I would miss my HF friends and the laughs/deals we have dealt.

In fact, I'm a lot more proud of these seven new hard drives that I had to get installed to hold two thousand new Ebooks that I bought. It's like the billionaire Warren Buffett says, "the more you learn, the more you earn."

minimalist - June 5, 2016, 2:46 pm

If Hack Forums closes, the one thing that I'll miss the most in the case of Hack Forums closing would be everybody's rush to get golden clover award.

Exactly my thoughts. Why would people even try to get the golden clover award? It's not because it's anything special.

Rigel - June 5, 2016, 2:55 pm

I will most likely miss the drama, it's always a good source of entertainment seeing popular users scam each other out of money.

Mix - June 5, 2016, 2:56 pm

I would miss everyone that is chill af here that have some banter every now and then when you can ailo - June 5, 2016, 3:01 pm

OnlyFinesse - June 5, 2016, 3:45 pm

I'd miss the positive vibes I get from HackForums.

samsepi01 - June 5, 2016, 3:46 pm

I'll probably miss shitty lounge threads with members spamming 100 character posts to become eligible for the Clover Award the most.

DATAHOARDER - June 5, 2016, 4:06 pm

I'll miss reading the dispute page.

ImYourDeadBeef - June 5, 2016, 4:10 pm

The most prob will be omni, best guy ever.

Sahaj - June 5, 2016, 4:13 pm

I'll miss you brother, how are you doing?

Suspense - June 5, 2016, 4:15 pm

I would probably miss the the atmosphere of the lounge. No website I have ever been on has been as diverse and absolutely retarded as the HF lounge. But honestly, that's what I love about this place.

Super Saiyan God - June 5, 2016, 4:24 pm

Getting scammed for 10 to 30 dollars . That's something I'd sure miss.

Drug Problems - June 5, 2016, 4:24 pm

I will miss all my lovers like

EthanX

TopKekoroni

CakeJecil

We would have to find somewhere else to be LQ cause thats all we do. LQ shit post in the lounge.

Good to know that. Do we have a bhabhiji in the house? (suggestive emoji)

illuminati? - June 5, 2016, 4:25 pm

I will miss the constantly flaming.

ntoskrnl.exe - June 5, 2016, 4:26 pm

I will miss shitty .NET malware, definitely. ?

Effexion - June 5, 2016, 4:26 pm

The people I have met here over the years. Yes, there's Skype etc, but I would always miss mixing with people in this environment.

Wafflemonger - June 5, 2016, 4:27 pm

I personally will miss the entertaining threads made by others. One of the main threads I enjoy that could potentially be seen as LQ is the "what would you eat for a last meal" threads. It's awesome looking through 10+ pages of people's final meals.

Anarchist07 - June 5, 2016, 4:32 pm

If Hack Forums shut down I'd be pretty sad, I think I would miss the community the most, it's just so special here that nothing else can compare.
