I have been doing graphics for 5 years now.

The prices are not set because every job is unique, but I am relaxed about pricing as long as your service/request is legit and you can pay after some sales.

I will only issue refunds if your sales aren't notably boosted after the design is live in your thread.

Easy to work with!
And most importantly, he delivers quality!

INVULBOX - June 15, 2016, 3:23 am

What did you learn in those 5 years, not to be mean, but your thread appearance isn't up to par, to be straight up I'll state that it's a cluster fuck. Everything seems rough.

HDPixel - June 16, 2016, 5:41 pm

Amazing graphics work for the price, vouch.

Linux™ - June 20, 2016, 6:54 pm

An amazing vouch for incarserati0n, if you're on a budget he is the go-to guy, I would recommend his services above all others. Within minutes he made an amazing, professional thread design for my RDP service. If you're looking for a long-term gfx creator I would say he is your best investment.

Keep up the outstanding work.

Will there be an update to your current thread design? My eyes are kinda struggling to focus with all the random effects, patterns, and colors to it.

Umaru - June 11, 2017, 7:14 pm

Cutie made my signature. Cheap as fuck and exactly what I asked for. Would not hesitate to use again!
