Thread: Kiznaiver

Aura - June 7, 2016, 2:20 pm

Quote:Katsuhira Agata is a quiet and reserved teenage boy whose sense of pain has all but vanished. His friend, Chidori Takashiro, can only faintly remember the days before Katsuhira had undergone this profound change. Now, his muffled and complacent demeanor make Katsuhira a constant target for bullies, who exploit him for egregious sums of money. But their fists only just manage to make him blink, as even emotions are far from his grasp.

However, one day Katsuhira, Chidori, and four other teenagers are abducted and forced to join the Kizuna System as official "Kiznaivers." Those taking part are connected through pain: if one member is injured, the others will feel an equal amount of agony. These individuals must become the lab rats and scapegoats of an incomplete system designed with world peace in mind. With their fates literally intertwined, the Kiznaivers must expose their true selves to each other, or risk failing much more than just the Kizuna System.

Season(s): 1

Episode(s): 12

Will watch it once the season ends. Making this thread because a qt 3.14 requested it.

I hate Trigger for the most part, including most of Gainax, but this is honestly quite fantastic.

Great characters including character progression, a pretty solid (although quite triggery) story, with lots of sweet moments.

One of the best, if not the best this season.

DerMensch24 - June 7, 2016, 4:10 pm

Will have to add it to my watch list, sounds interesting

This show has many really good characters.

everyone of them so lovable, especially Nico.

I really like this show tbh. Not bad for an ongoing anime. Rather decent or good. I guess you could say a little heartwarming with friendship

If you liked Kokoro Connect...then you'll love Kiznaiver.

It's what I would like to call "Kokoro Connect on drugs".

And damn you Aura, I wanted to make this thread.

Really brought the show back from being average.

Haven't watched them yet, but I don't think I ever thought this show was average.

Could be because average to me is like fucking Enride with the amount of shit I watch.

Temp_neightworks - June 15, 2016, 12:48 am

Finally got to the most recent episode

Holy fuck this show is fucking fantastic.

Just finished watching this now. Great anime, loved it.

The OP was also pretty good, didn't skip it at all and I usually skip OPs.

When an anime ends, I usually yarn for more but this one... perfect ending.
Really recommend this, sad to see it wasn't really that discussed here D:

Aura - August 9, 2016, 2:34 pm

I'm watching it tonight! I forgot I created the thread for it. I'll discuss it more once I'll be done watching it ?

Tell me how it goes, this anime seems interesting! ?

Happeh - August 9, 2016, 2:49 pm

For once an anime me and Angel can agree on loving. This has one of the cutest moments in it I've ever seen in an anime and my heart literally bounced.

Aura - August 9, 2016, 2:49 pm

Good feedback from Happeh-sensei, looks promising! Preparing pasta, then I'll sit down and eat a good dinner while watching it.

Obli - August 9, 2016, 2:51 pm

Eh. I watched the first episode, didn't really bite into it. Might give it another shot. How is it like later on? Is it going to be as bland as it was in ep1? I'm guessing it won't since it was a simple introduction. I like the art and the style, though.

Started a little slow for me but its over before you realise. The character development in this anime takes a huge spike halfway through and then there's more romance than you think.

Aura - August 9, 2016, 6:31 pm

I was expecting this show to be a bit more like Kokoro Connect but I was wrong. Though it have certain aspects of it, it's quite different at the same time. I like it.

neightworks - August 10, 2016, 3:58 pm

This shit was great, probably my favorite that season.

Aura - August 10, 2016, 4:07 pm

Just finished watching it. Awesome show, quite underrated and the score should be higher. Really good too if you liked Kokoro Connect.
