Thread: Cryptic VPN Or RA4W VPN, Air VPN

hextra6 - June 7, 2016, 11:18 pm

Have been using PIA VPN that support port forwarding in the past, so I have to abandon it due to unstable port after reconnecting, and i'm thinking of start using one of this VPN which are Cryptic VPN, RA4W VPN, and Air VPN, but totally confuse on the one to go for, all I want is the best one that won't disappoint, please mate in the house should help me in choosing the best of all, mature reply only, don't reply on this thread if you don't have any idea. THANKS Cryptic VPN has the best support I have ever seen. It's really easy to use and offers easy port forwarding. I've used RA4W and I didn't really like it. I've never used Air VPN. I recommend Cryptic.

I am using Cryptic VPN too, works just fine, setup was easy and the support is top notch! Port Forwarding could not be easier!

you should use nvpn ?

K3njii - June 8, 2016, 4:24 am

I vouch for Ra4w vpn and recommended it.

Seconded. Had RA4W for two years+ and it's never let me down. It's the go to VPN when people ask me.

DollarVPN cheap no logs and never down! i vouch for it

Insolation - June 8, 2016, 6:26 am

Try PhyberVPN! Its cheap and 80 ms connection.

ahemokay - June 8, 2016, 6:32 am

Never had a Problem with ra4wvpn can vouch for it.

RA4W us servers drop a lot for me (atlanta in specific).

Id say go with Cryptics service. The guy is responsible for majority of the VPNs offered here already, why not go to the source?

.trippy - June 8, 2016, 7:24 am

Always go with cryptic, found that ra4w isnt as fast.

Decay88 - June 8, 2016, 7:26 am

Ive tried both and they are both good.. For AU/NZ Server RA4W was faster but overall Cryptic is just as fast and less server downtimes...

For open port and overall VPN usage i prefer Cryptic

Eth Hakr - June 27, 2016, 7:09 am

RA4W for me never had any trouble using it either!! can't say much about cryptic since i've never tested it

Meow - June 27, 2016, 7:10 am

I would go with CrypticVPN but RA4W & Air are also good!

nightybeasty - October 13, 2016, 6:50 am

Ra4w vpn is really good. awesome

Caffiene - October 13, 2016, 7:01 am

What about Nvpn, guys? Does anyone use that here?

I'm using nVpn for 4.5 years it's reliable and does what described, costs more than others, but is really doing the job.

I recommend RA4W VPN, I'm using it and I'm very happy with it PortForwarding and price, because is really cheap. It is easy to use and Paypal is accepted.

alll vpn r $shit end

f0uked uppp

read the Terms of service off al the vpn compeny this is not good

this is real $hit

when you dl the vpn client the have your real ip when you use the e mail to active the ecunet

the have the real ip the only way is to go to some open wifi end have fun lol

ope your ayes for public camera lol

I have used cryptic vpn, it's great but, they use weak algo's. Also when downloading torrent on a linux machine using their vpn the connection drops constantly. you will to manually reconnect. I would suggest renting your own vps server and setup you own vpn server.

Ultra Instinct - February 12, 2017, 6:34 pm

I would advise you to go with RA4W. I have been using it for almost a year now with no issues.

FROst - February 12, 2017, 8:07 pm

I'm not hating on any of these but I'd recommend just setting up your own VPN. It will be much faster since your the only one on it.

I'm really loving CrypticVPN, been using it for awhile now and have no complaints whatsoever!
