Thread: [Scammed \$325 by xBl?c?, Bl?c?OuT \[UID= 2676098\]](#)

gochi - June 8, 2016, 7:32 am

Hello,

I have been scammed by xBl?c? [UID= 2676098] for $325

Their thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5292293>

Another Thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5299000>

Their old thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5288351>

Their Profile: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2676098>

After I paid, the user gave me a small VPS and said that he was scammed by his host. I gave him an hour time and then he went offline.

The deal took place on HF via PM and conversation on skype and here are the proofs:

<http://prntscr.com/bdvv2u>

<http://prntscr.com/bdvvbp>

<http://prntscr.com/bdvvhf>

<http://prntscr.com/bdvvn2>

<http://prntscr.com/bdvvtf>

<http://prntscr.com/bdvw26>

If you need more clarifications/proofs, I can provide that.

I request you people to not deal with {SpoofNode}, ~{NightNode}~ .

They are scammers when it comes to big money like $325 or more.

The accused went offline after you paid?

Sounds like scam. No matter what he is saying, it sounds like a scam.

Make sure you add the scam report to his reputation.

I am sorry for your loss OP. This is a legit scam report, the defendant already responded saying it's not his problem the host screwed him over, which in all reality... it is. Refund him. It is your responsibility if you didn't deliver what he paid for.
