Thread: What's on your bucket list of things to do before you die?

sense1 - June 10, 2016, 6:02 am

I personally really want to go skydiving, it's been a goal of mine ever since I was young - it's kind of out of the blue but eh, it has stuck with me ever since.
What about you? What would you like to do before you die?

Want to see Poland, Holland, and Switzerland in winter season before I die.

And I would sit on a railway platform like Cary Grant, wearing a suit, and smoking cigarettes confidently...

x0m- - June 10, 2016, 6:20 am

Sky Diving, Alaska to see auroa, goto france somewhere, thats all for now.

Pharmacist - June 10, 2016, 6:25 am

Skydiving is also on mine.
Along with,
Swimming with sharks
If at all possibly in a future, I'd like to go into zero gravity.
Live a year in the woods.
Smoke 8oz of weed in a week.
Do an LSD thumbprint.
East 6 grams of shrooms.
And have a threesome.

Nasyr - June 10, 2016, 6:33 am

I really want one or two weeks that I can go away into nature in a different country, disconnect from the world and live the life I've always wanted to live.

I'm not too keen on swimming with sharks but hey being in zero gravity would also be cool and living in the words for a year? That seems fun. Everything else is all good - but hey 8oz, wow.

Lo key want to fall in love again.
Had a love once it completely diminished in front of me. Ever since I've had a very hard time developing feelings for anyone.
There's been many girls crossing paths with me, but none of them seem to spark that fire inside of me.
Hoping that fire isn't completely dead and someone will sweep me off my feet one day.

Honestly, I'm good at talking to people about issues so I know what's going on here. You haven't fully forgotten about her disallowing you to love a girl, you are looking for her personality in others girls; that is the issue here. You have to learn to get over her before being ready to talk to girls.

Along with,
Swimming with sharks
If at all possibly in a future, I'd like to go into zero gravity.
Live a year in the woods.
Smoke 8oz of weed in a week.
Do an LSD thumbprint.
East 6 grams of shrooms.
And have a threesome.
You should for real have swimming with sharks on the end of your bucket list, so if a shark eats you, you've still completed the list.

Mine would be going to space, with 0 gravity.

lmao yeah, if he did that first then he might die and he wouldn't be able to complete his entire list.

Buy my dad a dodge Silverado.
Buy my mom a hummer.
Skydive.
Just survive in the wild without anything.

Probably more but this is all I can come up with.

Hehe, well that is one of the best ways to overcome your fear.
Overcome your fear by actually doing what you're scared of.

Corpse - June 19, 2016, 7:21 am
Swimming with sharks since it's one of my worst fears. That along with skydiving.

Travel around the world would be the #1 on my bucket list.

I have never been anywhere far

The one thing that I would love to do before I died would probably have to be wingsuiting through the alps or some mountains.
Would be an incredible experience.

I really enjoy that what at first glace seems like a bunch of nerdy guys in the internet have such varied interests and such a fascination with going to see beautiful things like the Northern lights.

Despite spending a lot of time indoors I do actually enjoy being out in the wild etc. I'm a scout so makes sense ?
I'd like to go see some of the wonders of the world, old and new.
Of course, the northern nights.
many females. (jk)
Write a better list on an actual bucket.
Design my own home for future family, money allowing
etc. (I'm tired)

It just seems so chill.. Like its "supposed" to be. You die, you die. It's basically you die, or you kill. It seems cool :3
