Thread: [\[Free Tutorial\] Offline/Online Cash Method](#)

Diclonius - June 12, 2016, 9:07 am saw this thread <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5300115> remembered i gave out this method in the VIP section of hf a while ago and now imma release it to the public since it can be used together with the thread above links may not work but the method should work the same still, just look for a replacement link/source if the link is broken or pm me and ill source it for you if you cant

Spoiler (Click to View)Quote:hello hf today i will reveal my "offline" niche there are online aspects of it but the greatest money came in locally this niche has made me 100$ in a couple days (ill explain why later) before we begin this method is free if anyone made you pay for it you got scammed.
the reason its free is because simply put it may not work for everyone it involves alot of work and memory and keeping up with the scene.
i myself may not be able to help you since its been about 6 months since i last sold anything within this niche

EDIT: 2 years since i last used method the niche itself is

Trading Cards
specifically yugioh cards

alright step 1: market research scope out the market prices go high and go low fluxuating wildly sometimes so if you see a card low it may go up in price later watch out for new booster packs they may lower the value reprints etc once you find a good place to buy continue to step 2 example links

check out

<http://yugico.com/>

step 2

decide wether to buy them or not its worth it to buy them once you have them handle them with extreme care i usually put them in a card sleeve watch out for corners step 3 locate a local card shop/comic book shop/hobby shop once you locate a shop be sure to make some friends and talk to them about what you got, more than likely they will buy your cards or trade or sell to the shops as well since most of them buy to sell at a higher price (you'll most likely get lowballed)

step 4 enjoy your easy money rinse and repeat tips: foreign cards are worth more in usa and vice versa if you know anyone in other countries try to get them to acquire booster packs they sell better than single cards

-online you could sell cards on ebay making even more income

-joining yugioh forums help alot

-knowing how to play makes things less business and more casual remember most of your customers will be 15-25

secondary method

another means of making money is providing deck boxes, card sleeves, card binder sleeves etc this will make you even more money since it is not card specific most game shops will have a couple yugioh players then magic the gathering players and more trading card players card sleeves sell much more if you find some with anime on the back as well as deck boxes sell if they got anime on them plain sleeves go for about 3-5$ plain boxes 5$ or so anime sleeves 8$

anime boxes 15$

link to some cheap sleeves link to deck boxes

you dont have to use the links if you find a cheaper source

EDIT: links may not work

I can recommend to also checkout this 2 YT channels:

Azneyes aka Slaydra

GalacticGod

They do YGO related stuff like deck profiles, duels and news, however both dispose of a series of Videos to teach a few things to nw vendors.
