Blade did a good job checking my website, and gave me a detailed report on any vulns that he could find.

Thanks for all the help! (Jul 2, 2016 03:03 PM)Niveus~ Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Huge vouch for this service,i bought it for testing my website and i didnt expect the work that op did.

He didnt just tested my website,he checked ALL the web files over than once and patched all the vulns that he found,he spent a lot of HOURS doing the job.

Best of the luck with sales, hq service!

Is this website yours? If yes I will look into it.

Edit: Oh good thing that some people randomly rated my thread with 1 star. You must have a very miserable life people.

So basically you are going to take the url and scan it on website scanners. and charge $25, right?

No. Of course not. I manually scan the website at first and then with tools. Automatic tools can't find all the vulnerabilities existing, they don't test the scripts. Also automatic tools can't scan cloudflare websites. Automatic tools don't fix the vulnerabilities.

So no, you are not right. ?
