Thread: Last quarter of high school - worst gpa ever gg todo3030 - June 13, 2016, 4:08 pm never had my gpa under a 90....this quarter checked my grades all them shits where terrible. doing good in ap gov and fucking tech. all my other classes complete shit.

probably cause my ap bio teacher who is also my anatomy teacher gave me a 75 on both fucking finals which were BOTH powerpoints. how the fuck are you going to give me a 75 on two different fucking powerpoints which hit all the criteria? so I gave up. then my english grade, that shit was weird.

I gave up. in general for those seniors who are graduating fuck grades at this quarter. I fucking gave up in HS this quarter legit gave up. got into my university and grades in my school close after the 2nd semester unless you have to send a end of the year report which I don't.

graduation for me is on the 24th. had prom already was okay. fuck school.

I am not kidding, I have nearly the exact same experience right now. Graduating high school at the end of the month, got into University already and all my grades are all over the place. Only thing is, I didn't go to prom.

Prom was overrated tbh, shit is beyond overrated. I spent way too much money on a rental, suit and every shit plus i lost money as well.

I was going through DR during it too which made it worse. got some good pics tho, drank a bit, and also went all over downtown and places I could've never gone before as I had a rental. we also ran into some niggas randomly we knew, running red lights and doing crazy shit after prom.

no parties were held either, besides the white honor kids doing some camp shit. other than that nothing much.

I don't know why people make prom to seem like it's super important, trust me prom isn't anything. it's like homecoming except food is better and it's more formal. plus more girls are sluttier at homecoming and more grinding happens there. prom is just people chilling honestly, you got two sides. the black side which is all black people going wild as fuck. the other side is the white kids doing white people shit. then you got the nerds.

this is how I'm gonna put it. Think of EVERY club in HS there is like the nerds, the jocks, the niggas, the whores, etc. Now prom is exactly like that. Each corner on the dance floor you got EVERYONE at prom. Like kids who are socially shy and shit even showed up to prom. Now prom is the same shit, each corner you got those groups. like it is no mixing, it's like the groups that are in HS are all at prom all separated doing their own thing. shit is weird.

fuck high school, I'll only miss sports that is all. fuck my teachers, fuck my classmates, and at the yearbook signing secretly I fucking hated most those mother fuckers I got in my book.

worst part is most the fucking kids are all going to the same university (will the non dumbasses you can be a dumbass but as long as your gpa is a 90). meaning all the NHS, white jocks and shit. so legit my class well the kids I hungout with aren't leaving my life....gonna probably see most those fuckers next year.
