The daily struggles of an average HF Member. Though, most of us would satisfy for mere 100 characters. Anyways, to prevent such stuff from happening, copy paste it in a word document.

It seems like that have never been an issue to me! :)

It's cool to know that it's all fine for me! Even thought I'm sorry for the one who have to deal with this trouble, eh boy. I'd be pissed off if this happened to me, literally super angry, red like a tomato!

I've heard about this happening from a lot of people but luckily, to this day I've never experienced something like this. Man, I'd be so pissed off.
