Thread: Chase's Feedback | 1 Year | 7,000 Post

TRAUMA - June 19, 2016, 8:44 am

Hello, this is more of a personal thread. Not meant to be some news article for everyone to read, so if you see me missing on a lot of things, its because I wanted to.
I am going over everything I want to discuss and give feedback on.

HackForums:

HF in a whole, has provided me a ton of things that I am grateful for.

As weird as it may sound, it's always been like a "safe zone" for me.

Anytime that I have needed money, I could come here and do a few deals with the snap of my finger.

I could always get help from friends on here on making money..

Anytime I was bored or in a awkward situation, or hell.. Even stressed..

HF is always a place where I can just get on, talk back and forth to a couple of cool kids on here and just enjoy my "time."

I could go all day, but all in all..

I am thankful for everyone of you (even echo) for making HF what it is, and a fun place to chill.

Staff:

Sam Winchester;

Don't really know what you do here.. I'm just it's the back side of things..

But I have PM's I sent to you like 5 months ago that you've never opened..

And never really seen a warning giving from you.

So, I can't say much.

Skorp;

You're in and out.

You get the job done, and that's it.

Anytime I see you post, it's always straight to the point and you always just "get it done", no matter what it is.

And I respect that, and you as a staff member.

King of Hearts;

You're the man, you're the one who is always helping everyone and anyone at all times.

I can go to you whether it be on Skype or PM's and you always help me fast and always with an answer.

Thank you for doing what you do here, you're very helpful.

Omniscient;

You do your job, you care about the business side, and community.

Nothing else to say.

Nerdi - June 19, 2016, 9:17 am

Cool feedback & yeah the members you shouted out are all pretty worthy from what I've seen.
I know the whole account closure thing is "in the past" now, but I am curious. If your account was never opened again, would you have come back on a new account permanently or just left HF forever?

A close is a close man.
And thank you! :)

Great feedback thread man. HF is honestly one of the few forums on the internet that you can devote a lot of time to and not regret it afterwards or feel that you've wasted too much time on nothing.

An?iety - June 19, 2016, 10:23 am

Awesome thread my dude, HF is quite the experience.

SWS. - June 19, 2016, 10:31 am

Thanks for the shoutout my friend, I appreciate it. Also, I'm glad to see that you're back after what happened yesterday as I know it had to suck to be RKO'd and closed accidentally like that.

FamousHater - June 19, 2016, 10:33 am figured thread would be dedicated all to omni was very nice thing he did getting your account back to you.

Hash G. - June 19, 2016, 10:36 am

With two months online you'd be able to add some feedback on groups & sections, am I right?
Either way, thanks for the shoutout fam. :)

Because saying that you enjoyed your time online sounds dumb.

Nice feedback thread Chase, I've always seen you around here as a HQ user and was disappointed that after you just learned how to use the Skype mycode tag you were closed for no reason... glad to see you are back!
