Hey there, first off all, Winter Fox didn't scam anyone. He was on a trip for some days, and he just got online now the first time. His account has been stolen, and his passes got changed. Proof:

Please don't deal/talk with this user.

He's going to be back in 3 days. If you have any questions, let me know, and he'll respond (through skype)

Lol how his account got stolen if he got 2fa on like that's dead to me.

you'd have to GIVE the code to someone.

That literally makes no sense at all. "He goes away" right when a bunch of scam reports start popping up.

Bullets managed to bypass HF's Gauth system and hack people's accounts, from what I have heard.

Might be legit, new ip, password reset, etc in the last week. Suspicious how he has gauth enabled though.

It's even a question for me... but I'm 100% sure he didn't scam anyone.
