I currently have 8 open on my browser right now.

Clique - June 20, 2016, 11:38 am

I have one open because chrome takes too much fucking ram

EthanX - June 20, 2016, 12:41 pm

Okay I usually have at least 4, but 50+? Do you think that makes you cool to leave that many tabs up or some shit? I don't see why else you would do that because that's just a waste of ram and cpu usage.

Mostly on my chrome book I keep them open so that I can reference back to them when I need em.

Condoms - June 21, 2016, 2:44 pm

I closed all my tabs on my phone, as I was updating Spotify account, so now nothing there.

As for computer.. I have 3 open. The main website of HF and two other pages/topics pertaining to HF that I would love to see/visit before they were to get locked/junked by a moderator. I always like catching things and reading before I forget or I lost that chance and opportunity to do so.

Oscura - June 21, 2016, 2:44 pm

4: Facebook, this thread, a package tracking and a google search. Most of the time I have a lot more open while I'm working on something.

Unkn0wnUs3r - June 21, 2016, 2:45 pm

7 on chrome... the days when tabs didn't exist o.0

I currently have 21 tabs open in Chrome and that seems pretty normal for me.

Pillows - June 21, 2016, 4:27 pm

I currently have 24 tabs open. Three of those tabs are occupied by HF and youtube each. My friends find it weird how I can have so many tabs opened up at once...

mrnapolean1 - June 21, 2016, 4:29 pm

13 at the current moment. I have had up towards 50 open in a single window before.

Brendan - June 21, 2016, 4:30 pm

I normally try to keep the amount of tabs I have open down to 3. 1 for YouTube/other video sites, another one for what I'm right then, and then another one if I need to search for something else. Sometimes it works and sometimes it doesn't.

IncarnatiOn - June 21, 2016, 6:01 pm

I barely have 8 tabs open and 5 of them are Hackforums, haha.
