When you look at the MOTM subforum, it says that it is moderated by the mentors and Froggy. Since she's closed, it seems appropriate to remove her from that moderation position, unless we'd like to keep her status there as a memento.

Cheers.

What? Froggy is closed?! Since when?!

And she never got a -10 from Omni, but rather a +10 and not forgotten. o.o

From what I've seen and heard she was closed and RKO'd upon request.

It wouldn't hurt to keep her there, but it wouldn't hurt to remove her. Suppose it comes down to Omniscient's decision, but it would be cool if we kept her there as a memento.

Although she was a very known member it doesn't make sense to keep her as a mod for that section if she is closed. I agree with OP, makes sense to remove her from that position.

As long as the contest is suspended it doesn't make a difference who moderates the section.

?Enlightened - June 22, 2016, 2:27 am

From what it seems, the whole section/MOTM contest is a memento for Froggy. Since it's not longer active so it seems....

Armada - June 22, 2016, 6:33 am

Froggy stepped down from MOTM management and asked Omni to close account.

As far as I know MOTM is no longer, at least for the time being.

Omni would have removed her the day she asked to get her account closed but he didn't so its probably a reminder for everyone not to forget a great member.

Whole Member Of The Month section has been closed because Froggy stepped down.

She's also on the mod list, and for some reason, has the Echo UB.
