You know that organized pump and dumps are illegal?

Not only that, you're asking for how much crypto we are holding...who in the right mind would expose their finances to a stranger on the web?

You sound like Ryan Pumper...a scammer on BitcoinTalk who ran a group like this, condoning pumps and dumps, who recently has given up on that forum and starting to divert to new ones.

To anyone thinking of joining this...keep in mind you are apart of something illegal, and pump/dump groups are extremely frowned upon by the crypto community as you are manipulating prices.

And on that note, I do not recommend you take part in it, nor share any financial information with this user or any user for that matter.

Really loving the thread design by the way, it's nice.

You can check my registration date on this forum, I am a user from 2008! And you dont need to share any financial information with me, nor do I request it. Its asked from the applicants because I dont want to add members who have $0, hold $0 worth of crypto in a cryptocurrency trading skype group. And no, pumping and dumping cryptocurrencies is not illegal. This is an unregulated market. Atleast have a little bit of knowledge on what you're writing.

Bitcoin is considered a commodity if I am not mistaken and so this would fit under a Securities fraud : https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Securities_fraud

"Securities fraud, also known as stock fraud and investment fraud, is a deceptive practice in the stock or commodities markets " Also Bitcoin is regulated by the IRS, and you recently have to pay taxes on it

Edit: it is considered a commodity

At the most the group will conduct as in pump & dump is group buying a less known altcoin, hold for a while and sell for profit. Thats not illegal.

iSpooked - June 30, 2016, 12:29 am

Have you traded cryptos before? Yes! BTC, ETH, XMR, MAID, XRP, FCT. mostly coins that have development backing them

How much fiat do you involve in your trades? around 1-5 btc per trade

Do you hold any crypto(s) right now? got a good chunk of btc and alts in polo. dont really want to give you exact amount. currently holding BTC, XRP, LSK, ETH and others.

Your skype ID: PM'd you it.

I don't recommend joining this group...

Why?

The owner is a dictator. I've owned and operated The Underworld (an apparently competing group with Crypto Trader Group)

I was booted, purely because I own this group. I never contested their group, not once did I cross promote. Though jeneiv (Sleeping Monk) didn't once discuss but rather booted me and deleted me from his discord.

I won't take this lightly.

Do not join this group.

I'd like to see where I have done any of what you just wrote. And also, this is my last reply towards you. Grow up, it helps and hurts less.

P.S. I dont care if my rep on this forum is -100, I dont sell anything, I dont make money from reps. So, go ahead and set me to -100, it would be sexy imo.

Who said anything about rep? I'm talking about your rep begging users

Not only that I'm sure anyone who's in your chat can back my claims. I was in there long enough to know what goes on.

You booted me because apparently I'm a "competing chat" if anyone started this unnecessary crap, it was you.
