Thread: Why is Omni repfucking members that report scammers?

Insomnolence - June 26, 2016, 6:45 pm

Well, I've had 2 people complain so far in a Skype chat that they are being repfucked for reporting scammers directly to him. I'm just wondering why that's something that happens. If someone is reporting a scammer, isn't that making HF a better place? Why are people being repfucked for this? Is it because these people are not supposed to contact omni directly for this kind of thing? I can't think of any other reason why these members would be repfucked.

Now I would link the profiles of the people that got repfucked but I don't know if they want it linked or not. So, can someone please fill me in on why this is happening?

The answer:

Still think it's a bit harsh but oh well.

I'm gonna go refresh myself on the rules as it's been a year or so since I've read them.

Hackforums doesn't get involved with deal disputes, simple as that.

Stashy - June 26, 2016, 6:46 pm

Because Hack Forums is not responsible for any deals, and you are supposed to post any disputes in the dispute or community alert sections.

minimalist - June 26, 2016, 6:46 pm

Because you don't contact Omniscient about a scammer, it just wastes his time which can be frustrating when you run something as grand as HF.

FamousHater - June 26, 2016, 6:46 pm hackforums does not get in between deal disputes.

and if u have an issue with this then feel free to pm the man himself. sure he will be more than happy to explain it to u

Grim - June 26, 2016, 6:47 pm

Did they do something against the rules? If so thats the only reason they would get rep killed.

Lor?d - June 26, 2016, 6:47 pm

Exactly what everyone else said.

HF staff doesn't get involved.

It's amazing how simple this is but how hard it is for people to grasp.

Actually, that would make sense. But a repfuck? Surely that's a bit harsh. Maybe omni is tired of reading the PM's, but wouldn't a 75% warning level be enough instead?

I was an admin on a board that was not nearly as active as this, and the amount of PMs I got about shit that is clearly answered in the FAQ got very annoying. I'm sure it's exponentially worse for Omni. To be honest, I'm both surprised and glad that he lets people PM him. Many other less personable admins would probably force users to go through mods, with mods and friends of the admin being the only ones who could PM them.

Yea I'm sure he has time to set each member to 75% that bothers him with a PM. I can only assume HF takes a majority of his day without him having to sift through mountains of PM's over stupid bullshit that hes stated over and over again. It's smarter to just RK people and make members read the rules multiple times to make sure they don't send him a stupid message.

b?xxy - June 26, 2016, 6:50 pm

Because it's against the rules, and people are doing it anyways.

Flared - June 26, 2016, 6:50 pm

Because you aren't supposed to pm him about deal disputes? It says it in the rules im pretty sure. Still fucked up that he just immediately rep kills whenever he feels like.

because this shit gets brought up almost daily in this section and that seems to be the only way members can take a hint

Gary - June 26, 2016, 6:55 pm

If they had read the rules it states staff dont get involved with scam reports. They broke a rule, I agree the punishment is a bit harsh but its the way its going to be dealt

Riyu - June 26, 2016, 6:56 pm

If someone actually PM'd him about a scammer they deserve to be rep killed. It's literally the first thing that it says when you sign up and everyone SHOULD know that rule.

Ahri????? - June 26, 2016, 6:56 pm

You already the old excuse

"Hf doesn't get involve with deals"

Even though people who have 3 open DD should at least have their market place posting rights taken away.

Yeah I don't agree with the whole repfuck thing but oh well, he does what he needs to do I guess. I think people here suck his dick too much but oh well.

Scam Reporting

The Scam Reports section is designed to alert other members of scammers. It also can serve to help resolve an issue between members. We can't get your money back or force a member to complete a deal. Do not PM staff. Our staff on occasion will ban a scammer, if the evidence is on site and apparent.

Rules for the Marketplace

1. Hackforums will not be held responsible for deals made by members.

labroca - June 26, 2016, 6:58 pm

Omniscient usually looks into the disputes if it was scandalous. If he finds anything such as a low quality user or someone with rep padding, he will fuck them.

Bluffer - June 26, 2016, 6:58 pm

Not only does staff not get involved in disputes but it says in the help documents, it says in the rules,etc that you should not contact Staff unless it's for a damned good reason... one might assume that reporting a scammer is a good reason however when the rules state staff don't get involved in disputes and people still message him probably 10s of times a day then enough is enough... I'd do the same thing.

Not to mention the dude is crazy busy all the time because not only does he have to deal with paid stickies but also pms about stickies or whatever, and he also has to deal with people who want their account recovered and he also has to deal with people upgrading their account and he also has to deal with developing the site and who knows what else.

Oh did I mention he might want to have a personal life? So yeah his online time is valuable, if those people wasted it than that was the consequence of doing so I guess.

I think it makes perfect sense to rekill somebody if they can't bother to read the rules that he's written. Very simple task.

YES WE KNOW, the question here is why is a repfuck a punishment. There are better ways IMO.

Closing this.

So because someone complains in Skype they were RKO'd for reporting a scammer you believe it to be true?

Don't be a pawn or moron.

Also, you're not suppose to PM me to report a deal dispute.
