bumping this up for everyone!

Chubs™ aka badman - July 2, 2016, 9:11 am

Don't see the point in you starting this because you said you 'Don't like SEO'. What's the point in starting something you dislike? Further down the road you will get bored and start something else because you will dislike doing SEO. Anyway good luck!

Difference between lf and ssf is on ssf you cannot unlock thread by just replying, you would need to pay through ssfp. and you earn ssfp by making threads, replies, comments etc..

also we're more focused on grey/blackhat seo and not really 'leaks'

Yo and the link is <http://seosatanforum.com>
