Most likely those kids who sell it for cheap use public CIDs LOL but hey its a 50/50 chance on not getting banned.

Idk if OP used public or private but eh... Whatever works for em' i guess.

I have never used Public Console IDs. Other than it being free, I don't see anything good about it. It's a hassle (you have to change almost every time) and most of the time they're banned. I've never found one working on Grand Theft Auto Online.

Anyway a private one doesn't cost that much, the one I'm currently using has been with me and unbanned for about half a year now. :)

Still offering this! Simply click on the thread!

Bajjo - July 16, 2016, 7:08 am

Yep, Here comes my review of this guy.

GOLD SERVICES REVIEW!

I will start with saying.. THIS WAS THE LOWEST, SO WORST SERVICES I HAVE EVER BEEN THROUGH. how this guy keep selling his stuff on HF is a mystery.

First thing.. This guy started very friendly, very kind but after the payment was sent to him. He didn't answer to any of my messages.

We had a problem with my current account. He "said" he fixed it, but when i went to transfer it. it wasn't fixed. nothing was done. than claiming that i had already done the transfer. So he said he would fix it again for me on another account.

So i sent him another account to modify, but after 1 week, i got tired and this is my review. This guy was so fast on answering and such, but after getting the payment. he didn't answer anything. and it was almost been 1 week.

<https://postimg.org/image/3ntq42aj5/>

This is proof of how much was i writing to him.

Worst services ever! I don't recommend this guy!

citsejaM - July 16, 2016, 8:55 pm

Vouch for Haxel, ignore the bad reviews. It's just a idiot.

Firstly, you don't know the story. secondly you don't know me. So shut the fuck up and don't call other people idiot. stupid as fuck. just because this guy did the services for the others, and he did it good. it doesn't mean he did it good for me. So next time you are thinking of calling someone an idiot. look at yourself and go and fuck yourself. stupid fuck!

Vouch for HaxelServices.

Sorted me out with a recovery package within no time. Included everything that I wanted and was very friendly and professional.

Thank you. Would definitely recommend.

To anyone who is wondering:

[Despite the negative comment that you posted, I will offer a free re-do. Next time, please read the terms of service before purchasing.]

Just wanted to point out that I have actually completed your account. The service that I offer guarantees that the account gets completed. I can provide as much proof as I can if you wish. Before I started working on your account, I clearly stated that you'll have to provide me with an account which has never been transferred from current gen to next-gen before.

I worked on your account and did every single thing requested correctly, and logged off and logged back in to double check then took a photo.

[img]<http://image.prntscr.com/image/3f3ed08831e04fd59b0f052c429f893c.png>[/img]

Afterwards, you noticed that you already have transferred and you started saying that I did not touch your account at all as an excuse to cover your mistake and then constantly spamming me when it was 4 in the morning for me, instead of waiting patiently. Anyway, it's just from my point of view.

Send me a private message with your Playstation Credentials, I'll get it done by tonight.

Unfortunately no. However, I believe there is a way around it but it requires waiting.

(Oct 15, 2016 04:06 PM)Glorify Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) do you have to login to my acc to do this or no
Yes for Playstation 3 and 4, No for Xbox One.

B e r r y - October 15, 2016, 11:43 pm

If you haven't bypassed the issue, you shouldn't be offering services for that console. :)

Unfortunately no, cannot do it as of high ban rates. Looking forward to PS4 modding though.
