Sorry for breaking in your thread, but how do you think about Italy - Germany? I would bet on Italy because they're doing well and the odds are high.

I would bet on Italy because they're doing well and the odds are high. This match would be really hard. Both teams are really good. Germany have really nice attack but Italy have nice defense. I decided to skip this match but if I was going to bet on it I would bet both team to score
