Thread: Filtering sections?

So when you click the view new posts button it shows ALL of the posts no matter what subforum they're in. To be honest I couldn't give a single fuck about half of the subforums on here. For example, I'm not interested in the rat section so it would be cool if there would be a way to just filter that out when you click new posts so your "feed" is more personalized. Just a thought that popped into my head

Assuming you're using Android, you can:

Assuming you're using a jailbroken Apple device, you can:
