Eagerkid - June 30, 2016, 12:54 pm

what are you eating now or going to be eating later?

I made a grilled chicken wrap, with onions, tomatoes, brown rice, lettuces, Mozzarella cheese and cheddar cheese and of course bacon. Blue cheese and honey mustard. It was fantastic

I have similar thoughts, camping is great until its 40 degrees out and your skin starts to burn. Hackforums is much better lol.

Plus the fact that out in the bush, there's no service and that means no internet. :(

Food is good, last night we found some sticks to cook our hot dogs on lmao.

These are just cheese. I have some sausage I am using for another project I may shove some off to the side and make breakfast quesadillas.

And as far a Crystal Pepsi, All it is is regular Pepsi without the distinctive brown "Caramel" coloring. Tastes just like its brown counterpart.

I sometimes will use and try different blends of cheese. I also make pizza flavored quesadillas. Those have Mozzarella, Pepperoni (or sausage if I go to WinCo), and a dab of pizza sauce.

As far as Crystal Pepsi, I just picked it up from the local convenience store I work part time for. I live down here in Texas so it may be a regional thing. If you have a Amazon Prime membership, you can buy it from Amazon Prime Pantry and have it shipped to your home.
