I cannot ensure that these are all clean. I have ran all of them on my open system in the past at least once with no troubles, but I strongly recommend that you run them in a VMWare or in any controlled environment just in case. See recommended list below...

If you are trying to make money by surveys then hackforums isn't your thing.. No one is going to do surveys. They're all surveys.

? Stijn ? - July 1, 2016, 12:04 pm

Thanks for all these downloads :) I'll try some of them

Koopa. - July 2, 2016, 10:37 pm

I wouldn't trust this. Just 12 posts and last 1st of July and 0 rep. To those who's tempted to click on this guy's links, proceed with caution

seandc02 - July 8, 2016, 2:53 pm

I Clicked the links and they attempted to post to my Facebook account and wanted me to do surveys. My Antivirus blocked the page.

HuMaN-BiEnG - July 16, 2016, 9:20 am

BlueBeastDK - August 2, 2016, 5:11 pm

This sure is a very sketchy post and user - Only 2 months old user, 0 reputation and 12 posts. And it's all sketchy sites with surveys, too bad there is no proof of this being a bad post. I would stay away!

andolol - August 29, 2016, 8:00 am

As said by the others, do not click on the links, you will fell in a bad website (wot reputation) if you have adblock.

Just ignore this.
