Hi

i tried these pancakes years ago and it is the best thing i have ever tasted in my life they are kind of an arabian cake which is served with honey mixed with butter

They look really soft and moist, like spongecake. Looks really good OP.

Might have to go over to the local pancake house for some flapjacks now.

oh fuck ya, i love the way those bubbles on the pancake formed meaning u cooked them at low heat on one side only to increase the fluffiness of the pancake so fucking hot
