You paid $550 for a jacket? ?

Call your bank and they will reverse it for you. It may cost a small fee but you'll get it back.

If you're so broke why would you spend $550 on a jacket to begin with?

If it was a deal here on Hack Forums you can open up a scam report. Otherwise if it was irl you could file a police report.

CALL PAYPAL AND TELL THEM WHAT HAPPENED

You deserve it if you spent that much on a fucking jacket.

I'm pretty sure you can claim it was an unauthorized purchase. If you did it with PayPal through a card of some sort I bet you can go to the card issuer, call them up and dispute the purchase.

If you're broke why are you spending that much money on a jacket.

People who dont have alot of money shouldn't go broke tryna look rich.

Rip. If you sent via family/friends option, Paypal has no way of getting it back. Calling is always the best option
