Okay. I'm coming toward my 100th post, and i got something really special planned, wan't to know? It's a Grunge/Hardcore song! I haven't finished yet.

And im already at a hundred post replying but yeah it's coming, I'd say it's half grunge and half hardcore because that's what it contains, some power chords, some Djent shit

Also i was wondering does anyone on hear play guitar? acoustic or electric? acoustic/electric?

Post pictures or the brands of your guitar and tell me what kind of genre your into? have you made any songs? when do you feel you write your best music? when your sad, happy, angry? what was the first song you learn't?

thanks guys, i hope you'll like my song :)
