What about the assembly? Should we just clear everything or just clone one?

That is just the main setting's. Copy a assembly from a real program or make your own!?

Just added Ghost crypter! More to come soon as promised!!

What other RAT's would you guy's like to see tutorial's for? Nanocore, Orcus, Netwire, etc. Please list them!:)

I have never used both. I don't use Dark comet as it is very outdated. I recommend purchasing Luminosity !?

Dude nice that you are trying to help and I only know about cyberseal but AES fucks with LL stub big time.... Also I reccomend pumping the file 15 every time you crypt.

You have also missed off the most important part with cyberseal about using a HQ icon and assembly...

Rather than doing more crypters maybe add more detail with scan results as well.

Just my two cents....
